

STATE NEWS.

WHAT IS GOING ON THROUGHOUT GEORGIA.

Horrible Discovery of a Young Woman's Corpse at Villa Rica.—Supposed Murderer—Fayetteville. Alarmed at a Jail Breaking—Deaths of Well Known Citizens in the State.

Special Correspondence of The Constitution.

HARTWELL, March 20.—Judge William R. Poole, a well-known citizen of our county, this afternoon met a very sudden death. About 4 o'clock he left town in his buggy by himself for home. On going down the hill this side of Lightwood Log creek, a mile from town, he accidentally fell out of his buggy on his head, the fall breaking his neck and killing him almost instantly. A negro man who was plowing in a field near by ran to him and with the assistance of a couple of men who were coming along the road meeting him, they put him in his buggy and brought his body back to town. Judge Poole has long been a resident of this county. He was born and raised in Abbeville district, South Carolina, and moved to Hart county when young man. Before the war he was for a number of years one of the judges of the superior court, and at the beginning of the war he raised a company in this county that took part in the fighting in July, 1861, with the 15th Georgia regiment under Colonel Thomas W. Thomas. Since the war he has lived on his farm in Shoal Creek district, with the exception of a few years that he lived in the city of Savannah, where he went to educate his children.

Special Correspondence of The Constitution.

VILLA RICA, March 18.—Our quiet little village was thrown into a fever of excitement yesterday as intelligence reached that the bones of a lady who had been found by the workmen while cleaning out a shaft at the copper mines near here. About seven years ago a lady mysteriously disappeared from the community, and it was supposed by the citizens here that she was foully murdered and thrown into the shaft. There were a great many rocks, in the shaft just above the bones. The name of the young woman was not known, but she was supposed to be Bagwell. Nearly at the end of the war Miss Bagwell, who was well known, committed an indiscretion the result of which would have been social ruin if they had become known. She determined that she should go to a relative to stay for some time. She started, and from that day to this she has not been heard from, and no traces of her whereabouts were ever discovered. Her relatives now come forward and declare that the tucking pin and breast pin worn by the unfortunate girl were the ones found on the exhumed body, and the fact that the bones of a miniature infant have also been found with those of the woman goes to show that it was the unfortunate Miss Bagwell. It is impossible that she should have committed suicide by jumping in the pit, for she was found covered with stones and lumber; nor is it likely that she fell in, for the same reason; and for the fact that she would naturally have fallen in one of the many pit holes which are to be met with before the one in which she was found.

Special Correspondence of The Constitution.

FAYETTEVILLE, March 21.—The town was alarmed this morning at 10 o'clock by the report that the prisoners in jail had broken out, which proved to be true. Our sheriff, Mr. J. M. Carlisle, whose residence is attached to the jail, happened to be absent on business, and no one to take the alarm but the sheriff's wife, who did good service by the aid of a negro boy in recapturing one of the prisoners, a negro boy by the name of Brown. The other prisoner, a white man by the name of Connor, succeeded in making his escape. It seems the lock was picked.

Mr. Joseph Travis, aged about twenty-three years, son of Judge James T. Travis, died yesterday evening at 8 o'clock with congestion of the brain. Mr. Travis was a well known citizen, and with his father, some five miles south of this place. He was one among the most esteemed young men of our county.

Special Correspondence of The Constitution.

BYRON, March 21.—Mr. Michael Hartley died yesterday at his residence, five miles from Byron, in Craven county, after several days confinement to his bed, living to the mature old age of 94 years. Mr. Hartley was a good citizen and a member of the church at least thirty years. He leaves one son, a number of grandchildren, some great and great-grandchildren, and many friends to mourn his death. His funeral takes place to-day near by in his private burial ground.

ELBERT AND AUGUSTA.

The trade of Elbert county may seem a small inducement for the construction of so expensive a work as a railroad, but it would be gained by connecting Elbert with Augusta do not understand the situation. Rail connection with Elbert means the concentration of the commerce of the counties of Elbert, Madison, Banks, Hall, Habersham, Rabun, Towns and White and portions of the two Carolinas at Augusta. It means the return of the people of all this section to their natural market place. Like the inhabitants of Elbert, those of this entire region earnestly desire to trade with the commercial men of your city. This connection by rail means, then, not only the supply of merchandise and plant for the necessities and luxuries of life, but also the augmentation of Augusta's cotton receipts by perhaps 50,000 bales annually. It means even more than all this. It almost assures the building of the direct route, through Rabun Gap, to the west, which would place Augusta sixty-five miles nearer Cincinnati than by any other line. A glance at the map will prove this. These are some of the inducements which are now before you. Others will doubtless suggest themselves to the reader. The importance to Augusta of this link of rails is patent to every one who has given the subject proper thought. To do it, is the question. Elbert, though not particularly well situated, is chosen. The Washington branch might be extended thirty miles, or a branch built from Crawford—twenty-eight miles to the Georgia road would be the chief beneficiary, and of course, should be the chief investor. But, if the Georgia road is debarred, by reason of the lease, from constructing this line, there is still another way out of the difficulty. At a point about fifty miles up the Savannah river, from Augusta, is the burial ground of three of Georgia's dead towns. They bear upon the maps the high sounding names of Lisbon, Petersburg and Vienna, and are situated about the mouth of Broad river, which itself affords sufficient water power to turn every spindle in the south. These towns were once prosperous and populous, a thriving trade being carried on by each of them—chiefly, however, by Petersburg. From Elbert to Petersburg is a ridge road twenty-two miles long, crossing which there is only one stream and it is a mere branch. The grading of this route would not cost a thousand dollars a mile. Five miles from Petersburg is the Savannah Valley railroad, and from there, without doubt, a branch could be built at an early day. I believe Elbert county would complete the grading at her own expense and furnish the crosses, if Augusta would assure her connection from Petersburg. Will the people of Augusta endeavor to accomplish this much? Since Augusta, as a city, cannot issue bonds, the only other way is to raise the sum needed by individual contribution, and from our knowledge of Augusta business men, I am confident that if three of them would take the matter in hand they could easily obtain the funds required to push forward the great work, which is only second in importance to the canal, yet will not cost one-tenth the amount expended on that improvement. Who will start the rail? There is no truer maxim than "history repeats itself," and the upper Savannah, as well as Augusta, is destined by some means to regain its lost prestige.

A SAVANNAH MURDER.

A Saturday Night Tragedy in the Old Fort Precinct.

Shortly before midnight Saturday the Old Fort precinct was the scene of a bloody tragedy, and, as is unfortunately the case in numerous instances, the guilty party has escaped. The particulars in regard to the affair are very meagre, and so suddenly and unexpectedly was the crime perpetrated, that nothing is known of it except in the immediate vicinity. From what could be learned, however, it appears that a dance was given at the saloon kept by John Lawson, on Reynolds wegian Dance House, known as the "Northeast," near Broughton, at which were present a number of characters, among them several seamen from vessels in port. There had been no disturbance in the house so far as could be ascertained, and the dance was in progress, when the report of a pistol was heard, followed by the cry, "A man is killed." This occurred outside of the house, and of course very abruptly terminated the dance. The parties scattered in every direction, and when the policemen arrived there were but few persons to be found. The body of a white man lay dead on the sidewalk, and as soon as assistance was obtained the corpse was removed into the saloon and placed upon the floor. It was then discovered that the man had been shot in the left breast, immediately above the heart, and the ball had penetrated the heart, killing him instantly. Two men, a white man and a Chinaman, giving his name as John Williams, who is steward on board the schooner Nellie T. Morse, at this port from Bath, Maine, were arrested as witnesses and carried to the barracks, but nothing could be gleaned from them. They alleged they had not seen the shooting, and knew nothing of the occurrence until after the report that a man had been killed. They stated there had been no trouble inside the house, and the difficulty, whatever it was, must have originated on the streets.

COCHRAN AND BRUNSWICK.

The Fight Between the Gamecocks of the Rival Towns.

The event of the season among sporting men was the battle of gamecocks at Cochran on Thursday and Friday. Large crowds of men who fancy such sports went there from all parts of the country, and a great deal of money changed hands on the main and back streets. The following is a summary of the fights as they occurred: First fight—Macon: Speckled orange yellow, weight six pounds and a half ounces; Brunswick: Gray terpin legs, six pounds one ounce; won by Macon. Second fight—Cochran: Black-breasted red, weight five pounds one ounce; Brunswick: Blue-gray duck wing, weight five pounds three and a half ounces; won by Macon. Third fight—Macon: Black-breasted red, weight five pounds one ounce; Brunswick: Blue-gray duck wing, weight five pounds three and a half ounces; won by Brunswick. Fourth fight—Macon: Black-breasted red, weight five pounds one ounce; Brunswick: Blue-gray duck wing, weight five pounds three and a half ounces; won by Brunswick. Fifth fight—Macon: Black-breasted red, weight five pounds one ounce; Brunswick: Blue-gray duck wing, weight five pounds three and a half ounces; won by Brunswick. Sixth fight—Macon: Black-breasted red, weight five pounds one ounce; Brunswick: Blue-gray duck wing, weight five pounds three and a half ounces; won by Brunswick. Seventh fight—Macon: Black-breasted red, weight five pounds one ounce; Brunswick: Blue-gray duck wing, weight five pounds three and a half ounces; won by Brunswick. Eighth fight—Macon: Black-breasted red, weight five pounds one ounce; Brunswick: Blue-gray duck wing, weight five pounds three and a half ounces; won by Brunswick. Ninth fight—Macon: Black-breasted red, weight five pounds one ounce; Brunswick: Blue-gray duck wing, weight five pounds three and a half ounces; won by Brunswick. Tenth fight—Macon: Black-breasted red, weight five pounds one ounce; Brunswick: Blue-gray duck wing, weight five pounds three and a half ounces; won by Brunswick. Eleventh fight—Macon: Black-breasted red, weight five pounds one ounce; Brunswick: Blue-gray duck wing, weight five pounds three and a half ounces; won by Brunswick. Twelfth fight—Macon: Black-breasted red, weight five pounds one ounce; Brunswick: Blue-gray duck wing, weight five pounds three and a half ounces; won by Brunswick. Thirteenth fight—Macon: Black-breasted red, weight five pounds one ounce; Brunswick: Blue-gray duck wing, weight five pounds three and a half ounces; won by Brunswick. Fourteenth fight—Macon: Black-breasted red, weight five pounds one ounce; Brunswick: Blue-gray duck wing, weight five pounds three and a half ounces; won by Brunswick. Fifteenth fight—Macon: Black-breasted red, weight five pounds one ounce; Brunswick: Blue-gray duck wing, weight five pounds three and a half ounces; won by Brunswick. Sixteenth fight—Macon: Black-breasted red, weight five pounds one ounce; Brunswick: Blue-gray duck wing, weight five pounds three and a half ounces; won by Brunswick. Seventeenth fight—Macon: Black-breasted red, weight five pounds one ounce; Brunswick: Blue-gray duck wing, weight five pounds three and a half ounces; won by Brunswick. Eighteenth fight—Macon: Black-breasted red, weight five pounds one ounce; Brunswick: Blue-gray duck wing, weight five pounds three and a half ounces; won by Brunswick. Nineteenth fight—Macon: Black-breasted red, weight five pounds one ounce; Brunswick: Blue-gray duck wing, weight five pounds three and a half ounces; won by Brunswick. Twentieth fight—Macon: Black-breasted red, weight five pounds one ounce; Brunswick: Blue-gray duck wing, weight five pounds three and a half ounces; won by Brunswick.

Special Correspondence of The Constitution.

MALARIOUS MACON.
The Dangers to Public Health Arising from Bad Sewerage.
Macon Telegraph.
We have been repeatedly importuned by citizens living near and on the line of the canal, running through the city, to have the court house and Stubbfield house, time and again; but as the initiatory step to build a sewer was taken by the council at its last meeting, in ordering the city surveyor to survey and report upon the cost, we have refrained from making any mention. That malarial fever is caused from the branch is too well known, even to the board of aldermen, and it is not generally known that the city on the eve of being sued by numbers of people for the damage done both life and property in the neighborhood because of its not being sewered. A canvass of the neighborhood yesterday by our reporter developed a great deal of sickness. Mr. William Taylor's family are sick, and are seldom without a case of pure malarial fever. The family of Mr. Jones are constantly sick, and at the Stubbfield house there are persons sick—all on account of this branch. Mrs. Whitcomb is unable to leave her room because of the fever, and the fearful stench from this branch, and on Sunday night, when it was so warm, Mr. Roland B. Hall was unable to open his back window because the stench was intolerable. There is no doubt but that a former citizen of this office lost his life from the malarial fever occasioned by this sewer. These are facts no one can deny, and, furthermore, the building of the direct route, through Rabun Gap, to the west, which would place Augusta sixty-five miles nearer Cincinnati than by any other line. A glance at the map will prove this. These are some of the inducements which are now before you. Others will doubtless suggest themselves to the reader. The importance to Augusta of this link of rails is patent to every one who has given the subject proper thought. To do it, is the question. Elbert, though not particularly well situated, is chosen. The Washington branch might be extended thirty miles, or a branch built from Crawford—twenty-eight miles to the Georgia road would be the chief beneficiary, and of course, should be the chief investor. But, if the Georgia road is debarred, by reason of the lease, from constructing this line, there is still another way out of the difficulty. At a point about fifty miles up the Savannah river, from Augusta, is the burial ground of three of Georgia's dead towns. They bear upon the maps the high sounding names of Lisbon, Petersburg and Vienna, and are situated about the mouth of Broad river, which itself affords sufficient water power to turn every spindle in the south. These towns were once prosperous and populous, a thriving trade being carried on by each of them—chiefly, however, by Petersburg. From Elbert to Petersburg is a ridge road twenty-two miles long, crossing which there is only one stream and it is a mere branch. The grading of this route would not cost a thousand dollars a mile. Five miles from Petersburg is the Savannah Valley railroad, and from there, without doubt, a branch could be built at an early day. I believe Elbert county would complete the grading at her own expense and furnish the crosses, if Augusta would assure her connection from Petersburg. Will the people of Augusta endeavor to accomplish this much? Since Augusta, as a city, cannot issue bonds, the only other way is to raise the sum needed by individual contribution, and from our knowledge of Augusta business men, I am confident that if three of them would take the matter in hand they could easily obtain the funds required to push forward the great work, which is only second in importance to the canal, yet will not cost one-tenth the amount expended

Special Correspondence of The Constitution.

Byron, March 21.—Mr. Michael Hartley died yesterday at his residence, five miles from Byron, in Craven county, after several days confinement to his bed, living to the mature old age of 94 years. Mr. Hartley was a good citizen and a member of the church at least thirty years. He leaves one son, a number of grandchildren, some great and great-grandchildren, and many friends to mourn his death. His funeral takes place to-day near by in his private burial ground.

ELBERT AND AUGUSTA.

The trade of Elbert county may seem a small inducement for the construction of so expensive a work as a railroad, but it would be gained by connecting Elbert with Augusta do not understand the situation. Rail connection with Elbert means the concentration of the commerce of the counties of Elbert, Madison, Banks, Hall, Habersham, Rabun, Towns and White and portions of the two Carolinas at Augusta. It means the return of the people of all this section to their natural market place. Like the inhabitants of Elbert, those of this entire region earnestly desire to trade with the commercial men of your city. This connection by rail means, then, not only the supply of merchandise and plant for the necessities and luxuries of life, but also the augmentation of Augusta's cotton receipts by perhaps 50,000 bales annually. It means even more than all this. It almost assures the building of the direct route, through Rabun Gap, to the west, which would place Augusta sixty-five miles nearer Cincinnati than by any other line. A glance at the map will prove this. These are some of the inducements which are now before you. Others will doubtless suggest themselves to the reader. The importance to Augusta of this link of rails is patent to every one who has given the subject proper thought. To do it, is the question. Elbert, though not particularly well situated, is chosen. The Washington branch might be extended thirty miles, or a branch built from Crawford—twenty-eight miles to the Georgia road would be the chief beneficiary, and of course, should be the chief investor. But, if the Georgia road is debarred, by reason of the lease, from constructing this line, there is still another way out of the difficulty. At a point about fifty miles up the Savannah river, from Augusta, is the burial ground of three of Georgia's dead towns. They bear upon the maps the high sounding names of Lisbon, Petersburg and Vienna, and are situated about the mouth of Broad river, which itself affords sufficient water power to turn every spindle in the south. These towns were once prosperous and populous, a thriving trade being carried on by each of them—chiefly, however, by Petersburg. From Elbert to Petersburg is a ridge road twenty-two miles long, crossing which there is only one stream and it is a mere branch. The grading of this route would not cost a thousand dollars a mile. Five miles from Petersburg is the Savannah Valley railroad, and from there, without doubt, a branch could be built at an early day. I believe Elbert county would complete the grading at her own expense and furnish the crosses, if Augusta would assure her connection from Petersburg. Will the people of Augusta endeavor to accomplish this much? Since Augusta, as a city, cannot issue bonds, the only other way is to raise the sum needed by individual contribution, and from our knowledge of Augusta business men, I am confident that if three of them would take the matter in hand they could easily obtain the funds required to push forward the great work, which is only second in importance to the canal, yet will not cost one-tenth the amount expended

Special Correspondence of The Constitution.

Byron, March 21.—Mr. Michael Hartley died yesterday at his residence, five miles from Byron, in Craven county, after several days confinement to his bed, living to the mature old age of 94 years. Mr. Hartley was a good citizen and a member of the church at least thirty years. He leaves one son, a number of grandchildren, some great and great-grandchildren, and many friends to mourn his death. His funeral takes place to-day near by in his private burial ground.

ELBERT AND AUGUSTA.

The trade of Elbert county may seem a small inducement for the construction of so expensive a work as a railroad, but it would be gained by connecting Elbert with Augusta do not understand the situation. Rail connection with Elbert means the concentration of the commerce of the counties of Elbert, Madison, Banks, Hall, Habersham, Rabun, Towns and White and portions of the two Carolinas at Augusta. It means the return of the people of all this section to their natural market place. Like the inhabitants of Elbert, those of this entire region earnestly desire to trade with the commercial men of your city. This connection by rail means, then, not only the supply of merchandise and plant for the necessities and luxuries of life, but also the augmentation of Augusta's cotton receipts by perhaps 50,000 bales annually. It means even more than all this. It almost assures the building of the direct route, through Rabun Gap, to the west, which would place Augusta sixty-five miles nearer Cincinnati than by any other line. A glance at the map will prove this. These are some of the inducements which are now before you. Others will doubtless suggest themselves to the reader. The importance to Augusta of this link of rails is patent to every one who has given the subject proper thought. To do it, is the question. Elbert, though not particularly well situated, is chosen. The Washington branch might be extended thirty miles, or a branch built from Crawford—twenty-eight miles to the Georgia road would be the chief beneficiary, and of course, should be the chief investor. But, if the Georgia road is debarred, by reason of the lease, from constructing this line, there is still another way out of the difficulty. At a point about fifty miles up the Savannah river, from Augusta, is the burial ground of three of Georgia's dead towns. They bear upon the maps the high sounding names of Lisbon, Petersburg and Vienna, and are situated about the mouth of Broad river, which itself affords sufficient water power to turn every spindle in the south. These towns were once prosperous and populous, a thriving trade being carried on by each of them—chiefly, however, by Petersburg. From Elbert to Petersburg is a ridge road twenty-two miles long, crossing which there is only one stream and it is a mere branch. The grading of this route would not cost a thousand dollars a mile. Five miles from Petersburg is the Savannah Valley railroad, and from there, without doubt, a branch could be built at an early day. I believe Elbert county would complete the grading at her own expense and furnish the crosses, if Augusta would assure her connection from Petersburg. Will the people of Augusta endeavor to accomplish this much? Since Augusta, as a city, cannot issue bonds, the only other way is to raise the sum needed by individual contribution, and from our knowledge of Augusta business men, I am confident that if three of them would take the matter in hand they could easily obtain the funds required to push forward the great work, which is only second in importance to the canal, yet will not cost one-tenth the amount expended

Special Correspondence of The Constitution.

Byron, March 21.—Mr. Michael Hartley died yesterday at his residence, five miles from Byron, in Craven county, after several days confinement to his bed, living to the mature old age of 94 years. Mr. Hartley was a good citizen and a member of the church at least thirty years. He leaves one son, a number of grandchildren, some great and great-grandchildren, and many friends to mourn his death. His funeral takes place to-day near by in his private burial ground.

ELBERT AND AUGUSTA.

The trade of Elbert county may seem a small inducement for the construction of so expensive a work as a railroad, but it would be gained by connecting Elbert with Augusta do not understand the situation. Rail connection with Elbert means the concentration of the commerce of the counties of Elbert, Madison, Banks, Hall, Habersham, Rabun, Towns and White and portions of the two Carolinas at Augusta. It means the return of the people of all this section to their natural market place. Like the inhabitants of Elbert, those of this entire region earnestly desire to trade with the commercial men of your city. This connection by rail means, then, not only the supply of merchandise and plant for the necessities and luxuries of life, but also the augmentation of Augusta's cotton receipts by perhaps 50,000 bales annually. It means even more than all this. It almost assures the building of the direct route, through Rabun Gap, to the west, which would place Augusta sixty-five miles nearer Cincinnati than by any other line. A glance at the map will prove this. These are some of the inducements which are now before you. Others will doubtless suggest themselves to the reader. The importance to Augusta of this link of rails is patent to every one who has given the subject proper thought. To do it, is the question. Elbert, though not particularly well situated, is chosen. The Washington branch might be extended thirty miles, or a branch built from Crawford—twenty-eight miles to the Georgia road would be the chief beneficiary, and of course, should be the chief investor. But, if the Georgia road is debarred, by reason of the lease, from constructing this line, there is still another way out of the difficulty. At a point about fifty miles up the Savannah river, from Augusta, is the burial ground of three of Georgia's dead towns. They bear upon the maps the high sounding names of Lisbon, Petersburg and Vienna, and are situated about the mouth of Broad river, which itself affords sufficient water power to turn every spindle in the south. These towns were once prosperous and populous, a thriving trade being carried on by each of them—chiefly, however, by Petersburg. From Elbert to Petersburg is a ridge road twenty-two miles long, crossing which there is only one stream and it is a mere branch. The grading of this route would not cost a thousand dollars a mile. Five miles from Petersburg is the Savannah Valley railroad, and from there, without doubt, a branch could be built at an early day. I believe Elbert county would complete the grading at her own expense and furnish the crosses, if Augusta would assure her connection from Petersburg. Will the people of Augusta endeavor to accomplish this much? Since Augusta, as a city, cannot issue bonds, the only other way is to raise the sum needed by individual contribution, and from our knowledge of Augusta business men, I am confident that if three of them would take the matter in hand they could easily obtain the funds required to push forward the great work, which is only second in importance to the canal, yet will not cost one-tenth the amount expended

A LIVELY LETTER.

MORE FACTS ABOUT MONROE COUNTY FARMING.

A Spicy Letter from a Monroe County Farmer Who Thinks that All of the Successful Farmers in Monroe County Have Not Been Mentioned in the Constitution—The List of Them.

Monroe Advertiser.

Home, March 16.—Mr. Editor: Having just seen the letters of Judge Zellner and Mr. Scott to the Constitution, copied in your last issue, I have concluded that Mr. Scott confined himself to his own neighborhood; that he might have been in his mention of successful farmers, and that Judge Zellner does not know one-half what a "successful" politician ought to know about his county. Why, judge, make invidious distinction of J. W. Taylor, away down in "Middlebrook," when on the one side of him is that homespun, unpretentious but successful farmer, LaFayette Roquemore; on the other, John Allen; on still another side, the "despicable" granger, Eden Taylor? Who has made more money on his farm than he? Whose home is more comfortable? Do your correspondents reckon Lee Perkins in Bibb because he does so much of his business in Macon? Any one at all acquainted with Monroe knows that Mr. Perkins lives in Monroe and makes as much money on his farm as anybody. How do his premises look? His orchards, his fields, his truck patches? What about Jackson's place? True, all the money here invested was not made upon the farm, but for all that George Wadley is a live, progressive farmer. Would you have him talk about his business in Macon? Here is one. What fish-ponds? What orchards? What flocks of goats and sheep? What improved implements? What crops? What abundance of everything good? Surprise Mr. Hollister, when he comes and feast upon every luxury that grows upon a farm. For economy and good farming Tom Barrow is behind none of them. My neighbor, John Searcy, manages to owe nobody and his house is grand. Give John a few more years and you will know him. Jim Harrison left the army bareheaded, barefooted, owning a cob pipe and $900 in debt. He owes no one and is worth several thousand dollars and four head of stock in this unknown section we brag upon but one farmer, to whom it affords me great pleasure to introduce the public. When the war closed Alsey P. Jackson owned a little farm so poor that the crow never visited it and the grasshoppers emigrated from it. He has improved the land, supported his family and is always out of debt. Talk about fat horses! Visiting him, you know, you think I desire to mention money, or desire someone else to extol me. No, I know I am a failure as a farmer. Why? Because I am a type of too many others who are attempting to grow wheat and did not design for them to be farmers. "Pots are born"—farmers are born. Sense is wanting—God given tact. Too many farming that ought to be in the machine shop and the foundry, and in the counting house. Too many behind the counter that ought to be farming or sent on some foreign mission. The cards need shuffling and re-dealing. Five acres are too many for any one to manage, and I desire to mention the farmers you mentioned; but one cause of their success was they had the hard mule sense to know what to do with a dollar when they had made it. More to the point, knowing how to farm. Give my friend Joe Howard my spendthrift ways and he would beg bread in two years. Let friend Sutton go to a ten-penny alley a time or two, and his engine will be sold and placed over with mortgages. To close, let me advise farmers to trade. Trade on anything. You will run to town—carry something to sell or to swap. The whole world is trading against you. I have no objection to the "Trade" trade! My whole purpose in writing this was to introduce Judge Zellner, Mr. Scott and their readers to this unknown and ignored portion of what is Monroe ought to be Pike or Jones or Crawford or San Domingo. Yours, E. B. TAYLOR.

Notes on Georgia.

Rabbits are damaging Lumpkin gardens. Robbersville is organizing a fire company. The American Light Infantry is drilling hard. South River elects a mayor on April 1st. The Lumpkin county ordinary's sales weigh 16,800 pounds. Augusta is being generally painted and whitewashed. In Savannah and New River the tides are now higher than since last August. Savannah's burglar alarm and district telegraph company will soon be in running order. The first cargo of pir iron imported into Savannah since the war, was received there on Monday. Judge D. H. Hunt, one of the oldest citizens of Harris county, died recently. He was seventy-five years old. The meetings now in progress both at the First Baptist and First Methodist churches of Macon, are well attended. Real estate in Newton county for 1881 was valued at $1,106,304. Personal estate $79,910. There were 1,970 persons who paid poll tax. There are in Scriven county 936 polls among the colored population. They own 9,619 acres of land besides personal property. The aggregate value of the whole property owned by colored people in the county is $54,140. The Macon Telegraph says: About midnight last night one of our neighbors fell through the roof of the hole in the mail room, and had the presence of mind to catch with one hand and hold on until the other boys could make up and run to his rescue. He was considerably frightened and his cries carried consternation into the camp.

THE SUNNY SOUTH.

A lady in Fincastle, Va., died from tight lacing. In a few days blackberries will be very plentiful around Jacksonville, Fla. Nashville is to have an exhibition of bicycle riding by a female rider soon. The Sanford house, Jacksonville, Fla., had 188 arrivals for the week ending 19th inst. The Tennessee State medical society, will have its annual meeting in Memphis, May 9th. Out of 229 landings between Vicksburg and St. Louis, a boat was only enabled to make 22. The Baptist state Sunday-school convention, of North Carolina, meets in Raleigh the 30th inst. The town of Austin, Mississippi, has been almost completely wiped out by the Mississippi river flood. The Union cotton mills of Richmond, Va., has been incorporated with a capital stock allowed of $2,000,000.

THE UNION COTTON MILLS OF RICHMOND, VA.

During the months of January and February, Orange (Va.) county, property to the value of $155,000, changed hands.

A. J. McKimlin, of Nashville, has sold the famous trotting stallion Blackwood, to Commodore Baisan, of St. Paul, for $6,500.

There will be four hundred horses assembled at Louisville, Ky., this spring, which will make it the grandest carnival of this year.

The prospects in the entire wheat growing section of Arkansas, for an abundant harvest were never more promising, than at present.

Stow's circus "collapsed" at Vicksburg last Monday. Liabilities about $5,000. The phenacalia was all sold to pay the debts due the actors.

The insurance companies doing business in the state of Maryland, West Virginia and North Carolina, will have a meeting in Baltimore, March 28th.

A pure strengthening tonic, free from whisky and alcohol, cures dyspepsia and similar diseases. It has never been equaled. Brown's Iron Bitters, mehl d'wile.

LOTTERIES.

Particular Notice.

All the drawings will hereafter be under the exclusive supervision and control of GENERALS G. T. BEAUREGARD and JUBAL A. EARLY. A SPLENDID OPPORTUNITY TO WIN A FORTUNE. FOURTH GRAND DISTRIBUTION, CLASS D, AT NEW ORLEANS, TUESDAY, APRIL 11, 1882—14th Monthly Drawing. Louisiana State Lottery Co.

Incorporated in 1868, for 25 years by the Legislature for Educational and Charitable purposes—with a capital of $1,000,000—to which a reserve fund of over $500,000 has since been added.

By an overwhelming popular vote its franchise was made a part of the present State Constitution adopted December 24, A. D. 1879.

ITS GRAND SIXTH NUMBER DRAWINGS WILL TAKE PLACE MONTHLY.

It never sells or postpones. Look at the following distribution: CAPITAL PRIZE $20,000.

100,000 TICKETS AT TWO DOLLARS EACH, HALF TICKETS, ONE DOLLAR.

1287 OF PRIZES.

1 Capital Prize.....$20,000
1 Capital Prize.....$10,000
1 Capital Prize.....$5,000
2 Prizes of $2,500.....5,000
5 Prizes of $1,000.....5,000
20 Prizes of 500.....10,000
100 Prizes of 100.....10,000
500 Prizes of 20.....10,000
1,000 Prizes of 10.....10,000

9 Approximation Prizes of $500.....4,500
9 Approximation Prizes of 200.....1,800
9 Approximation Prizes of 100.....900

1857 Prizes amounting to.....$10,400
A handsome correspondence of prizes and points to whom liberal compensation will be paid. For further information, write giving full name and address, enclosing a return envelope or money order by mail, addressed only to the Louisiana State Lottery Co., New Orleans, La.

Or M. A. DAUPHIN, 607 Seventh St., Washington, D. C.
Or M. A. DAUPHIN, 607 Seventh St., Washington, D. C.
N. B.—Orders addressed to New Orleans will receive prompt attention.

The particular attention of the Public is called to the fact that the entire number of the Tickets for each Monthly Drawing is sold, and consequently all the prizes in each drawing are sold and drawn and paid.

---42D---

POPULAR MONTHLY DRAWING OF THE

COMMONWEALTH DISTRIBUTION CO.

In the city of Louisville, on Friday, March 31st, 1882.

These drawings occur monthly (Sundays) excepted, under provisions of an Act of the General Assembly of Kentucky.

The United States Circuit Court on March 21st, rendered the following decisions:

8 Ky. The Commonwealth Distribution Company is legal.

24 Ky. The drawings are fair.

8 Ky. The Company has now on hand a large reserve fund. Read the list of prizes for the MARCH DRAWING.

1 Prize.....$50,000
1 Prize.....10,000
1 Prize.....5,000
10 Prizes, $1,000 each.....10,000
20 Prizes, 500 each.....10,000
100 Prizes, 100 each.....10,000
200 Prizes, 50 each.....10,000
600 Prizes, 20 each.....12,000
1,000 Prizes, 10 each.....10,000
9 Prizes $500 each, Approximation Prizes.....2,700
9 Prizes 250 each, Approximation Prizes.....2,250
9 Prizes 100 each.....900

1,900 Prizes.....$112,400
Whole Tickets $2. Half Tickets $1.
27 Tickets, $50. 55 Tickets, $100.
Remit money or Bank Draft in letter, or sent by Express, to be received by Registered Letter or Post office order. Address all orders to R. M. BOARDMAN, 414 Courthouse Building, Louisville, Ky., or 209 Broadway, New York.

felts—dew tues thurs sat

ROYAL HAVANA LOTTERY!

Grand Extra Drawing APRIL 19TH, 1882.

Composed of 15,000 Tickets only, with 722 Prizes amounting to 2,250,000 Pesos. The First Prize being worth of 1,000,000 Pesos. The Pesos is worth 52cts. U. S. Currency.

PRICE OF TICKETS. Whole, $140. Halves, $70. Quarter, $36. Tenths, $15. Twentieths, $8. Fortieth, $4. Address all orders to L. FAGET, 159 Common St., New Orleans, La.

Successor to F. Masch, 159 Common St., New Orleans, La.

H. M. PATTERSON, Undertaker, 159 Common St., New Orleans, La.

mar 14—dim tues thurs sat

No. 18 Loyd St., Markham house block, Atlanta, Ga. KEEPS FULL LINE OF METALIC AND WOOD CUTS, Engravings, Booklets, etc., of wood manufactures. Fine business and carriage at reasonable prices. Prompt attention to telegraphic and all other terms of night. A perfect engraving process. Location opposite telegraphic office and passenger depot. G. K. 90-42, mar 14—dim tues thurs sat

GOLD MEDAL AWARDED The Author. A new and great method of engraving, the best and cheapest

THE SUPREME COURT.

DECISIONS RENDERED IN MARCH, 1882.

James Jackson, Chief Justice, Martin J. Crawford and Alexander M. Spier, Associate Justices. Reported by J. H. Lumpkin, Supreme Court Reporter.

Stedham et al. vs. Sims. Equity, from Probate Court. Judgment for defendant. Stedham et al. vs. Sims. Equity, from Probate Court. Judgment for defendant.

Stedham et al. vs. Sims. Equity, from Probate Court. Judgment for defendant. Stedham et al. vs. Sims. Equity, from Probate Court. Judgment for defendant.

Stedham et al. vs. Sims. Equity, from Probate Court. Judgment for defendant. Stedham et al. vs. Sims. Equity, from Probate Court. Judgment for defendant.

Stedham et al. vs. Sims. Equity, from Probate Court. Judgment for defendant. Stedham et al. vs. Sims. Equity, from Probate Court. Judgment for defendant.

Stedham et al. vs. Sims. Equity, from Probate Court. Judgment for defendant. Stedham et al. vs. Sims. Equity, from Probate Court. Judgment for defendant.

Stedham et al. vs. Sims. Equity, from Probate Court. Judgment for defendant. Stedham et al. vs. Sims. Equity, from Probate Court. Judgment for defendant.

Stedham et al. vs. Sims. Equity, from Probate Court. Judgment for defendant. Stedham et al. vs. Sims. Equity, from Probate Court. Judgment for defendant.

Stedham et al. vs. Sims. Equity, from Probate Court. Judgment for defendant. Stedham et al. vs. Sims. Equity, from Probate Court. Judgment for defendant.

Stedham et al. vs. Sims. Equity, from Probate Court. Judgment for defendant. Stedham et al. vs. Sims. Equity, from Probate Court. Judgment for defendant.

Stedham et al. vs. Sims. Equity, from Probate Court. Judgment for defendant. Stedham et al. vs. Sims. Equity, from Probate Court. Judgment for defendant.

Stedham et al. vs. Sims. Equity, from Probate Court. Judgment for defendant. Stedham et al. vs. Sims. Equity, from Probate Court. Judgment for defendant.

Stedham et al. vs. Sims. Equity, from Probate Court. Judgment for defendant. Stedham et al. vs. Sims. Equity, from Probate Court. Judgment for defendant.

Stedham et al. vs. Sims. Equity, from Probate Court. Judgment for defendant. Stedham et al. vs. Sims. Equity, from Probate Court. Judgment for defendant.

Stedham et al. vs. Sims. Equity, from Probate Court. Judgment for defendant. Stedham et al. vs. Sims. Equity, from Probate Court. Judgment for defendant.

Stedham et al. vs. Sims. Equity, from Probate Court. Judgment for defendant. Stedham et al. vs. Sims. Equity, from Probate Court. Judgment for defendant.

Stedham et al. vs. Sims. Equity, from Probate Court. Judgment for defendant. Stedham et al. vs. Sims. Equity, from Probate Court. Judgment for defendant.

Stedham et al. vs. Sims. Equity, from Probate Court. Judgment for defendant. Stedham et al. vs. Sims. Equity, from Probate Court. Judgment for defendant.

Stedham et al. vs. Sims. Equity, from Probate Court. Judgment for defendant. Stedham et al. vs. Sims. Equity, from Probate Court. Judgment for defendant.

Stedham et al. vs. Sims. Equity, from Probate Court. Judgment for defendant. Stedham et al. vs. Sims. Equity, from Probate Court. Judgment for defendant.

Stedham et al. vs. Sims. Equity, from Probate Court. Judgment for defendant. Stedham et al. vs. Sims. Equity, from Probate Court. Judgment for defendant.

Stedham et al. vs. Sims. Equity, from Probate Court. Judgment for defendant. Stedham et al. vs. Sims. Equity, from Probate Court. Judgment for defendant.

Stedham et al. vs. Sims. Equity, from Probate Court. Judgment for defendant. Stedham et al. vs. Sims. Equity, from Probate Court. Judgment for defendant.

Stedham et al. vs. Sims. Equity, from Probate Court. Judgment for defendant. Stedham et al. vs. Sims. Equity, from Probate Court. Judgment for defendant.

Stedham et al. vs. Sims. Equity, from Probate Court. Judgment for defendant. Stedham et al. vs. Sims. Equity, from Probate Court. Judgment for defendant.

Stedham et al. vs. Sims. Equity, from Probate Court. Judgment for defendant. Stedham et al. vs. Sims. Equity, from Probate Court. Judgment for defendant.

Stedham et al. vs. Sims. Equity, from Probate Court. Judgment for defendant. Stedham et al. vs. Sims. Equity, from Probate Court. Judgment for defendant.

THE ATLANTA CONSTITUTION: THURSDAY MARCH 23, 1882.

one dirk with cleavers and a bottle of chloroform. He is fully identified and will be cared for.

PURCHASER. Henry Remshaw, who shot Dr. Gray, is a shoemaker by trade and was formerly a member of company F, 146th New York Volunteers. He was employed in the Turkish bath at Bag's hotel, and for the past eighteen months has labored under the delusion that he was an ambassador from heaven, sent by Gaius and others to shoot Dr. Gray. After the shooting he went home, told his friends in the house that he had shot Dr. Gray and would give himself up. He went to jail and unloaded a perfect arsenal, told what he had done, and the jailer was a brother veteran, he consented to go to bed. Subsequently he was brought to the station house and said he had a duty to perform and did it. He was at the depot at 5:30 p.m., ready to shoot Dr. Gray when he came from the cars. He was never a patient of the asylum, but taught Dr. Gray's children how to swim. He is undoubtedly insane.

TRIAL. March 20.—Remshaw, who shot Dr. Gray, superintendent of the State Lunatic asylum, was taken to the Recorder Bulger this morning and committed to await the action of the grand jury, which meets on Monday. Remshaw was taken to the asylum by the grand jury, which meets on Monday. Remshaw was taken to the asylum by the grand jury, which meets on Monday.

TRIAL. March 20.—Remshaw, who shot Dr. Gray, superintendent of the State Lunatic asylum, was taken to the Recorder Bulger this morning and committed to await the action of the grand jury, which meets on Monday. Remshaw was taken to the asylum by the grand jury, which meets on Monday.

TRIAL. March 20.—Remshaw, who shot Dr. Gray, superintendent of the State Lunatic asylum, was taken to the Recorder Bulger this morning and committed to await the action of the grand jury, which meets on Monday. Remshaw was taken to the asylum by the grand jury, which meets on Monday.

TRIAL. March 20.—Remshaw, who shot Dr. Gray, superintendent of the State Lunatic asylum, was taken to the Recorder Bulger this morning and committed to await the action of the grand jury, which meets on Monday. Remshaw was taken to the asylum by the grand jury, which meets on Monday.

TRIAL. March 20.—Remshaw, who shot Dr. Gray, superintendent of the State Lunatic asylum, was taken to the Recorder Bulger this morning and committed to await the action of the grand jury, which meets on Monday. Remshaw was taken to the asylum by the grand jury, which meets on Monday.

TRIAL. March 20.—Remshaw, who shot Dr. Gray, superintendent of the State Lunatic asylum, was taken to the Recorder Bulger this morning and committed to await the action of the grand jury, which meets on Monday. Remshaw was taken to the asylum by the grand jury, which meets on Monday.

TRIAL. March 20.—Remshaw, who shot Dr. Gray, superintendent of the State Lunatic asylum, was taken to the Recorder Bulger this morning and committed to await the action of the grand jury, which meets on Monday. Remshaw was taken to the asylum by the grand jury, which meets on Monday.

TRIAL. March 20.—Remshaw, who shot Dr. Gray, superintendent of the State Lunatic asylum, was taken to the Recorder Bulger this morning and committed to await the action of the grand jury, which meets on Monday. Remshaw was taken to the asylum by the grand jury, which meets on Monday.

TRIAL. March 20.—Remshaw, who shot Dr. Gray, superintendent of the State Lunatic asylum, was taken to the Recorder Bulger this morning and committed to await the action of the grand jury, which meets on Monday. Remshaw was taken to the asylum by the grand jury, which meets on Monday.

TRIAL. March 20.—Remshaw, who shot Dr. Gray, superintendent of the State Lunatic asylum, was taken to the Recorder Bulger this morning and committed to await the action of the grand jury, which meets on Monday. Remshaw was taken to the asylum by the grand jury, which meets on Monday.

TRIAL. March 20.—Remshaw, who shot Dr. Gray, superintendent of the State Lunatic asylum, was taken to the Recorder Bulger this morning and committed to await the action of the grand jury, which meets on Monday. Remshaw was taken to the asylum by the grand jury, which meets on Monday.

TRIAL. March 20.—Remshaw, who shot Dr. Gray, superintendent of the State Lunatic asylum, was taken to the Recorder Bulger this morning and committed to await the action of the grand jury, which meets on Monday. Remshaw was taken to the asylum by the grand jury, which meets on Monday.

TRIAL. March 20.—Remshaw, who shot Dr. Gray, superintendent of the State Lunatic asylum, was taken to the Recorder Bulger this morning and committed to await the action of the grand jury, which meets on Monday. Remshaw was taken to the asylum by the grand jury, which meets on Monday.

TRIAL. March 20.—Remshaw, who shot Dr. Gray, superintendent of the State Lunatic asylum, was taken to the Recorder Bulger this morning and committed to await the action of the grand jury, which meets on Monday. Remshaw was taken to the asylum by the grand jury, which meets on Monday.

TRIAL. March 20.—Remshaw, who shot Dr. Gray, superintendent of the State Lunatic asylum, was taken to the Recorder Bulger this morning and committed to await the action of the grand jury, which meets on Monday. Remshaw was taken to the asylum by the grand jury, which meets on Monday.

TRIAL. March 20.—Remshaw, who shot Dr. Gray, superintendent of the State Lunatic asylum, was taken to the Recorder Bulger this morning and committed to await the action of the grand jury, which meets on Monday. Remshaw was taken to the asylum by the grand jury, which meets on Monday.

TRIAL. March 20.—Remshaw, who shot Dr. Gray, superintendent of the State Lunatic asylum, was taken to the Recorder Bulger this morning and committed to await the action of the grand jury, which meets on Monday. Remshaw was taken to the asylum by the grand jury, which meets on Monday.

TRIAL. March 20.—Remshaw, who shot Dr. Gray, superintendent of the State Lunatic asylum, was taken to the Recorder Bulger this morning and committed to await the action of the grand jury, which meets on Monday. Remshaw was taken to the asylum by the grand jury, which meets on Monday.

TRIAL. March 20.—Remshaw, who shot Dr. Gray, superintendent of the State Lunatic asylum, was taken to the Recorder Bulger this morning and committed to await the action of the grand jury, which meets on Monday. Remshaw was taken to the asylum by the grand jury, which meets on Monday.

TRIAL. March 20.—Remshaw, who shot Dr. Gray, superintendent of the State Lunatic asylum, was taken to the Recorder Bulger this morning and committed to await the action of the grand jury, which meets on Monday. Remshaw was taken to the asylum by the grand jury, which meets on Monday.

TRIAL. March 20.—Remshaw, who shot Dr. Gray, superintendent of the State Lunatic asylum, was taken to the Recorder Bulger this morning and committed to await the action of the grand jury, which meets on Monday. Remshaw was taken to the asylum by the grand jury, which meets on Monday.

TRIAL. March 20.—Remshaw, who shot Dr. Gray, superintendent of the State Lunatic asylum, was taken to the Recorder Bulger this morning and committed to await the action of the grand jury, which meets on Monday. Remshaw was taken to the asylum by the grand jury, which meets on Monday.

TRIAL. March 20.—Remshaw, who shot Dr. Gray, superintendent of the State Lunatic asylum, was taken to the Recorder Bulger this morning and committed to await the action of the grand jury, which meets on Monday. Remshaw was taken to the asylum by the grand jury, which meets on Monday.

TRIAL. March 20.—Remshaw, who shot Dr. Gray, superintendent of the State Lunatic asylum, was taken to the Recorder Bulger this morning and committed to await the action of the grand jury, which meets on Monday. Remshaw was taken to the asylum by the grand jury, which meets on Monday.

TRIAL. March 20.—Remshaw, who shot Dr. Gray, superintendent of the State Lunatic asylum, was taken to the Recorder Bulger this morning and committed to await the action of the grand jury, which meets on Monday. Remshaw was taken to the asylum by the grand jury, which meets on Monday.

TRIAL. March 20.—Remshaw, who shot Dr. Gray, superintendent of the State Lunatic asylum, was taken to the Recorder Bulger this morning and committed to await the action of the grand jury, which meets on Monday. Remshaw was taken to the asylum by the grand jury, which meets on Monday.

PERRY DAVIS PAIN KILLER.

A cold or sore throat may not seem to amount to much, and if promptly attended to can easily be cured; but neglect is often followed by consumption or diphtheria. No medicine has ever been discovered which so quickly and surely cures such cases as PERRY DAVIS PAIN KILLER. The prompt use of this invaluable remedy has saved thousands of lives. PERRY DAVIS PAIN KILLER is not of recent origin. It is the most valued where it is best known. A few extracts from voluntary testimonials read as follows:

PAIN KILLER has been my household remedy for years. I have used it in giving a cure to a young man who was suffering from a cold and sore throat. I have used it in giving a cure to a young man who was suffering from a cold and sore throat. I have used it in giving a cure to a young man who was suffering from a cold and sore throat.

PAIN KILLER has been my household remedy for years. I have used it in giving a cure to a young man who was suffering from a cold and sore throat. I have used it in giving a cure to a young man who was suffering from a cold and sore throat. I have used it in giving a cure to a young man who was suffering from a cold and sore throat.

PAIN KILLER has been my household remedy for years. I have used it in giving a cure to a young man who was suffering from a cold and sore throat. I have used it in giving a cure to a young man who was suffering from a cold and sore throat. I have used it in giving a cure to a young man who was suffering from a cold and sore throat.

PAIN KILLER has been my household remedy for years. I have used it in giving a cure to a young man who was suffering from a cold and sore throat. I have used it in giving a cure to a young man who was suffering from a cold and sore throat. I have used it in giving a cure to a young man who was suffering from a cold and sore throat.

PAIN KILLER has been my household remedy for years. I have used it in giving a cure to a young man who was suffering from a cold and sore throat. I have used it in giving a cure to a young man who was suffering from a cold and sore throat. I have used it in giving a cure to a young man who was suffering from a cold and sore throat.

PAIN KILLER has been my household remedy for years. I have used it in giving a cure to a young man who was suffering from a cold and sore throat. I have used it in giving a cure to a young man who was suffering from a cold and sore throat. I have used it in giving a cure to a young man who was suffering from a cold and sore throat.

PAIN KILLER has been my household remedy for years. I have used it in giving a cure to a young man who was suffering from a cold and sore throat. I have used it in giving a cure to a young man who was suffering from a cold and sore throat. I have used it in giving a cure to a young man who was suffering from a cold and sore throat.

PAIN KILLER has been my household remedy for years. I have used it in giving a cure to a young man who was suffering from a cold and sore throat. I have used it in giving a cure to a young man who was suffering from a cold and sore throat. I have used it in giving a cure to a young man who was suffering from a cold and sore throat.

PAIN KILLER has been my household remedy for years. I have used it in giving a cure to a young man who was suffering from a cold and sore throat. I have used it in giving a cure to a young man who was suffering from a cold and sore throat. I have used it in giving a cure to a young man who was suffering from a cold and sore throat.

PAIN KILLER has been my household remedy for years. I have used it in giving a cure to a young man who was suffering from a cold and sore throat. I have used it in giving a cure to a young man who was suffering from a cold and sore throat. I have used it in giving a cure to a young man who was suffering from a cold and sore throat.

PAIN KILLER has been my household remedy for years. I have used it in giving a cure to a young man who was suffering from a cold and sore throat. I have used it in giving a cure to a young man who was suffering from a cold and sore throat. I have used it in giving a cure to a young man who was suffering from a cold and sore throat.

PAIN KILLER has been my household remedy for years. I have used it in giving a cure to a young man who was suffering from a cold and sore throat. I have used it in giving a cure to a young man who was suffering from a cold and sore throat. I have used it in giving a cure to a young man who was suffering from a cold and sore throat.

PAIN KILLER has been my household remedy for years. I have used it in giving a cure to a young man who was suffering from a cold and sore throat. I have used it in giving a cure to a young man who was suffering from a cold and sore throat. I have used it in giving a cure to a young man who was suffering from a cold and sore throat.

PAIN KILLER has been my household remedy for years. I have used it in giving a cure to a young man who was suffering from a cold and sore throat. I have used it in giving a cure to a young man who was suffering from a cold and sore throat. I have used it in giving a cure to a young man who was suffering from a cold and sore throat.

PAIN KILLER has been my household remedy for years. I have used it in giving a cure to a young man who was suffering from a cold and sore throat. I have used it in giving a cure to a young man who was suffering from a cold and sore throat. I have used it in giving a cure to a young man who was suffering from a cold and sore throat.

PAIN KILLER has been my household remedy for years. I have used it in giving a cure to a young man who was suffering from a cold and sore throat. I have used it in giving a cure to a young man who was suffering from a cold and sore throat. I have used it in giving a cure to a young man who was suffering from a cold and sore throat.

PAIN KILLER has been my household remedy for years. I have used it in giving a cure to a young man who was suffering from a cold and sore throat. I have used it in giving a cure to a young man who was suffering from a cold and sore throat. I have used it in giving a cure to a young man who was suffering from a cold and sore throat.

PAIN KILLER has been my household remedy for years. I have used it in giving a cure to a young man who was suffering from a cold and sore throat. I have used it in giving a cure to a young man who was suffering from a cold and sore throat. I have used it in giving a cure to a young man who was suffering from a cold and sore throat.

PAIN KILLER has been my household remedy for years. I have used it in giving a cure to a young man who was suffering from a cold and sore throat. I have used it in giving a cure to a young man who was suffering from a cold and sore throat. I have used it in giving a cure to a young man who was suffering from a cold and sore throat.

PAIN KILLER has been my household remedy for years. I have used it in giving a cure to a young man who was suffering from a cold and sore throat. I have used it in giving a cure to a young man who was suffering from a cold and sore throat. I have used it in giving a cure to a young man who was suffering from a cold and sore throat.

PAIN KILLER has been my household remedy for years. I have used it in giving a cure to a young man who was suffering from a cold and sore throat. I have used it in giving a cure to a young man who was suffering from a cold and sore throat. I have used it in giving a cure to a young man who was suffering from a cold and sore throat.

PAIN KILLER has been my household remedy for years. I have used it in giving a cure to a young man who was suffering from a cold and sore throat. I have used it in giving a cure to a young man who was suffering from a cold and sore throat. I have used it in giving a cure to a young man who was suffering from a cold and sore throat.

PAIN KILLER has been my household remedy for years. I have used it in giving a cure to a young man who was suffering from a cold and sore throat. I have used it in giving a cure to a young man who was suffering from a cold and sore throat. I have used it in giving a cure to a young man who was suffering from a cold and sore throat.

PAIN KILLER has been my household remedy for years. I have used it in giving a cure to a young man who was suffering from a cold and sore throat. I have used it in giving a cure to a young man who was suffering from a cold and sore throat. I have used it in giving a cure to a young man who was suffering from a cold and sore throat.

PAIN KILLER has been my household remedy for years. I have used it in giving a cure to a young man who was suffering from a cold and sore throat. I have used it in giving a cure to a young man who was suffering from a cold and sore throat. I have used it in giving a cure to a young man who was suffering from a cold and sore throat.

PAIN KILLER has been my household remedy for years. I have used it in giving a cure to a young man who was suffering from a cold and sore throat. I have used it in giving a cure to a young man who was suffering from a cold and sore throat. I have used it in giving a cure to a young man who was suffering from a cold and sore throat.

PAIN KILLER has been my household remedy for years. I have used it in giving a cure to a young man who was suffering from a cold and sore throat. I have used it in giving a cure to a young man who was suffering from a cold and sore throat. I have used it in giving a cure to a young man who was suffering from a cold and sore throat.

SEEDS, AGRICULTURAL IMPLEMENTS, ETC.

CULTIVATORS, COTTON PLANTERS, SEEDS, ETC.

Dow Law Cotton Planter $10.50.

STANDARD RIDING AND WALKING CULTIVATOR COMBINED. Unexcelled by any ever made. $37.50.

WALKING CULTIVATOR. $25.00. WALKING CULTIVATOR. $25.00.

SEED CORN, COTTON SEED, MILLET, REAPERS, MOWERS, THRESHERS, ENGINES, ETC.

500 TONS BAKER & CO.'S DAVIDSON & CO. AND BOWKER'S COTTON FERTILIZER.

MARK W. JOHNSON & CO., 27 MARIETTA STREET.

RAILROAD SCHEDULES.

Cincinnati, New Orleans and Texas Pacific Railroad Co. TIME TABLE IN EFFECT MARCH 1, 1882.

CINCINNATI SOUTHERN RAILWAY DIVISION.

ALABAMA GREAT SOUTHERN DIVISION.

VICKSBURG AND MERIDIAN DIVISION.

VICKSBURG, SHREVEPORT AND PACIFIC DIVISION.

JOHN SCOTT, Vice President and General Manager, Cincinnati, O.

ROME RAILROAD CO. OF GEORGIA, OFFICE OF GENERAL FREIGHT AND PASSENGER AGENT.

NOTICE.

ON AND AFTER FEBRUARY 20, the following schedule will be put in force over this road:

Leave Atlanta at 8:05 a.m. Arrive in Rome at 11:30 a.m.

Leave Atlanta at 2:15 p.m. Arrive in Rome at 5:45 p.m.

Leave Atlanta at 8:20 a.m. Arrive in Rome at 11:50 a.m.

Leave Atlanta at 4:15 p.m. Arrive in Rome at 7:45 p.m.

Leave Atlanta at 5:10 a.m. Arrive in Rome at 8:40 a.m.

Leave Atlanta at 6:30 a.m. Arrive in Rome at 10:00 a.m.

Leave Atlanta at 7:15 p.m. Arrive in Rome at 10:45 p.m.

Leave Atlanta at 8:30 a.m. Arrive in Rome at 12:00 p.m.

Leave Atlanta at 9:15 p.m. Arrive in Rome at 12:45 p.m.

Leave Atlanta at 10:00 a.m. Arrive in Rome at 1:30 p.m.

Leave Atlanta at 10:45 p.m. Arrive in Rome at 2:15 p.m.

FOR RENT—MISCELLANEOUS.

COMFORTABLE OFFICE FOR RENT AT NO. 15 BROAD STREET, by Ramspeck & Green.

COFFAGE ON PEACHTREE STREET, BE- tween James and Leiden, Address J. G. Reynolds, P. O. Box 307.

FOR RENT—GOOD STABLE WITH THREE stalls. Central location. Call at 18 South 7th street.

ROOMS FURNISHED OR UNFURNISHED. R good location, private family. Apply at Houston street.

FOR RENT—TWO PLEASANT ROOMS, WITH a kitchen, suitable for light house keeping, to a couple (without children). Gas and bath. Locality central. Address, with references, 1109 Jackson st.

FOR RENT—LARGE, NEWLY-FINISHED, well-lighted and ventilated rooms over Mick- elliery & Whitlock's store, No. 24 Alabama street. Also a large hall, 25x120 feet wide, lighted and ventilated. Can be seen by applying to Mr. Mick- elliery on the premises, or R. J. Wilson, 79 Broad street.

FOR RENT—A LARGE STORE ROOM, No. 27 and 29 Broad street; also, small and large rooms, with steam power, suitable for manu- facturing. Inquire at R. D. Vittor's, 18 Broad street.

FOR RENT—2-STORY BRICK HOUSE, 12 No. 371 Whitehall street—$40. N. R. Fowler, Real Estate Agent, at Cummings's Ex- change. 1109 Jackson st.

CLEVELAND WROUGHT IRON FENCE, AT 71 East Alabama street. Thos. M. Taylor, Agent. mch23 d1w

LESSONS IN CHINA AND PHOTOGRAPHY—Lecturing given by Mrs. Oliver at her resi- dence, 72 Luckie street. Specimens of China painting at Taylor's drug store, and Freeman & Cranshaw's. mch23 d1w

ONLY TREATMENT FOR SYPHILIS, FREEING of medicine, Eureka Water and Turkish Baths as used by Dr. Stalback Wilson, 11 Loyd street. mch23 d3t—thur sun tue

OSGOOD'S SAFES TOOK FIRST PRIZE AT cotton exposition. More in use in Atlanta than any other make. Best stock in the city, regardless of cost before April 1st. Salesroom 17 South Broad street. mch23 d1w

OSGOOD'S SAFES HAVE THE CHAMPION in the world. More in use in Atlanta than any other make. Best stock in the city, regardless of cost before April 1st. Salesroom 17 South Broad street. mch23 d1w

TO THE PUBLIC—I HAVE LEASED FOR A number of years the entire building of the Franklin printing house, now occupied by James F. Harrison & Co. 27 and 29 Broad street; therefore I offer my entire stock of cutlery, which includes carving knives and forks, table knives and forks, all kinds of butter knives and kitchen knives, 200 different kinds of pocket knives, concave razors, Taylor's paper hanger and barber's shears, 150 dif- ferent kinds of scissors, and all kinds of cutlery for cost before removal. R. D. Vittor, 18 Broad street. 11mch23 d1w

THE WORKS OF THE Collier Comp'y OF ST. LOUIS, MO.

Which were totally Destroyed by Fire on May 28th and September 21st, 1881.

ARE REBUILT!

THE R

1. Ga.

Women,
attention to
to over 60,
be found
17 dom

The Day's
the Con
Jott
p

The pol
There w
Yesterd
day.

The new
together.
Atlanta
the tax co
A falling
yesterday
Mr. Joh
street, was Only one that was o
At St. P
Hunter str
The first

street.
r west of
-dam

detectors of kinds of 11-dif

DENTR.
ing tone.
ebb dif

age for all sale-
consumable

way Recorder
 of a good
 Mr. J. M.
 died at his morning at
 The city park in a tide where
 made.
 The Ric
 agreed to c
 Baptist co
 May 20th,
 turn for liv

BUILD
 West End
 Two new street.
 The sold
 was Joe
 The Tob
 cottages on Hunter st
 going a cha
 ing erected
 Mr. Good agent, sold
 day to parti

Mr. V. P. North
 one of them
 neighbor.
 Mr. Ben
 for $3,000
 and is 230
 Mr. G. S.
 street—a tw
 English. M
 of Atlanta built up a
 and is des
 attended hi

At the c
 representat
 That the
 That ten
 Air-Line.
 That the
 crowded wi
 That Mrs
 Johnson, o
 Boyce stati
 E. Jones, M
 yesterday m
 tend the fu
 left the city
 That the l

to run between via the Ket trip. The co
most compl
interior is a
flects the in

Yesterday
of Langley
injury whic
young man
nate as to d

The alarm
day mornin
burning of
on Harris st
nated in the fective flue
as thought
be destr
hard work
soon after a
in extingui
had been de

This popu day for the
in its mem
were electe
Beckwith,
Walter S.
the membe
The lake le bream and Calhoun, a ished. The
the library
the electio

About noon
young Russ Longley & arrival in dent by way
right hand Leipic were so about about picking up
upon the
and in dot
mutilating
Peck were ry ald, after
moved to
that has
lanta.

Elias H
chant of A trade out
morning
Worthing
for one ca
terday
big plo gued R

in boxes, kinds, and all thorough all of the w Mr. Haim said to plows. and upon the firm of the name indicates trade since ago less than one sales were was less than more than more than trate all se

Co
Messrs.
your notice
near Silver
jects used college are imported "

CITY NEWS.

THE REGULAR RECORD OF CURRENT LOCAL EVENTS.

The Day's Doing in Public Offices—The Record of the Courts, the Railroads and Hotels—Capital Jottings—Real Estate Operations—Improvements—Gossip of all kinds.

The political fire is growing daily larger. There were two false fire alarms yesterday. Yesterday was an exceedingly disagreeable day.

The new moon and the high winds come together. Atlanta has many industries which escape the tax collector's observation.

A falling sign gave a white man a hard lick yesterday morning on Marietta street.

Mr. John Stephens's store, on Forsyth street, was burglarized last night.

Only one arrest was made yesterday and that was on account of a concealed weapon.

At St. Paul's Methodist church on East Hunter street, an interesting revival is going on.

The first number of Mr. A. L. Harris's Railway Record is out and is a handsome number of a good journal.

Mr. J. M. Weaver, an old Atlanta citizen, died at his home on Walton street yesterday morning after a lingering illness.

The city council will visit the proposed park in a body to-day, and to-night will decide whether or not the purchase shall be made.

The Richmond and Danville road has agreed to carry persons wishing to attend the Baptist convention at Greenville, S. C., on May 20th, from Atlanta to Greenville and return for five cents per mile.

BUILDING AND REAL ESTATE.

West End is catching the building fever.

Two new houses are going up on Terry street.

The Joel Branan property, on Forsyth street, was sold yesterday for $11,000.

The Tolbert Brothers are building three new cottages on Butler street.

Hunter street, near the cemetery, is undergoing a change. Several new houses are being erected thereon.

Mr. Goode, the Marietta street real estate agent, sold three houses and two lots yesterday to parties residing outside of Atlanta.

Mr. V. P. Sisson has bought two lots on North avenue. He will build a residence on one of them and hold the other for some good neighbor.

Mr. Ben Abbott yesterday purchased a lot on Peachtree street next to Mr. Rhode Hill's, for $5,000. The lot has a frontage of 46 feet, and is 200 feet deep.

Mr. G. S. Prior bought No. 53 Peachtree street—a two-story brick store—from J. W. English. Mr. English is one of the leading men of Atlanta and by integrity and energy has built up a good business and fine reputation—and is deserving of the good fortune that has attended him.

CASHED POINTS.

At the cashed yesterday a CONSTITUTION representative learned—

That the Georgia road is doing a big travel.

That ten bushels of eggs come in on the Air-Line.

That the Central road took out nine coaches crowded with people.

That Mrs. R. C. Johnson and son, Steve Johnson, of the Green Line office, left for Boyce station on a sad mission. Captain W. E. Jones, Mrs. Johnson's only brother, died yesterday morning at Boyce, and it is to attend the funeral that Mrs. Johnson and son left the city.

That the Tallulah, a new sleeper which is to run between New Orleans and New York via the Kennesaw route, was making its first trip. The coach is one of the handsomest and most complete palaces in the world. The interior is a perfect sheet of mirrors, which reflects the inland world to advantage.

An Injured Hand.

Yesterday was a bad day with the employees of Langley & Robinson. In addition to the injury which happened to a man named Lupton, a young man named McDaniel was so badly injured as to drive a chisel through his hand.

A Narrow Escape.

The alarm of fire was sounded early yesterday morning, and was occasioned by the burning of Captain Robert Berry's residence on Harris street, near Spring. The fire originated in the garage, and was caused by a defective flue, and at one time it appeared as though the entire building would be destroyed, but by prompt and hard work by those who reached the residence soon after the fire was discovered succeeded in extinguishing it before any great damage had been done.

Atlanta Fishing Club.

This popular club had an election on Tuesday for the purpose of filling the vacancies in its membership. The following gentlemen were elected: Hon. W. L. Calhoun, Bishop Beckwith, H. W. Grady, Thomas Meador, Walter S. Gordon, B. W. Wrenn. This fills the membership to 25—the full number. The lake leased by this club is teeming with bream and bass. It is about three miles from Calhoun, and a club-house has just been finished. There will be a meeting of the club at the library rooms on Saturday at 4 o'clock for the election of officers for the year.

Less One Finger.

About noon yesterday Solomon Lupton, a young Russian Jew who has been working in Langley & Robinson's planing mill since his arrival in Atlanta, met with a painful accident by which he lost the forefinger on his right hand. During the dinner hour young Lupton went up to one of the saws which are so abundant in the mill, and about which he knew nothing, and in picking up a block began scraping the teeth of the saw. By some means the belt slipped upon the wheel and the saw began to move, and in doing so amputated the finger besides mutilating his hand badly. Drs. Strout and Peck were called in and rendered the necessary aid, after which the young man was removed to his home. This is the first accident that has occurred to a Russian exile in Atlanta.

Sending Goods to Mexico.

Elias Haiman, probably the only merchant of Atlanta who can boast of having a trade outside of the United States. Yesterday morning he received an order from Messrs. Worthington & Hatch, of Monterey, Mexico, for one car load of plows, and all day yesterday the packing employees of his big plow factory were busily engaged packing the goods ordered—of three kinds, and are the best make. The wood is all thoroughly seasoned Georgia timber, and all of the work given each plow was done by Mr. Haiman's employees, so they may be said to be strictly Atlanta made plows. They are handsomely finished, and upon each plow is painted the name of the firm of Worthington & Hatch, as well as the name of the manufacturer, and this sale indicates great progress in Mr. Haiman's trade since he came to Atlanta. Five years ago his building covered less than one-eighth of an acre and sales were limited. His first week's pay-roll was less than $40. Now his buildings cover more than two acres and his pay-rolls are more than $250 per week and his sales penetrate all sections.

Corner Hilburn on Dr. Salter.

Messrs. Hilburn, in reply to your notice of the inquest on the body found near Silver Spring park, declares that the subjects used in the dissecting department of his college are "imported." Did he ever see an imported "stiff" with clothes on? The jury certainly found clothes in the case containing the mutilated remains of this negro woman. He says, "the debris of the dissecting department was placed in an air-tight barrel and entrusted to a colored dayman with instruction to carry it outside of the city, away from human habitation, and bury it; not to conceal, as stated, but to 'put it where it could not be offensive to anyone.' The facts are, the remains were in a twenty gallon keg, marked to Dr. Salter from Robert A. Hance, manufacturer of medical fluid extracts, 45 north Ninth street, Philadelphia. The head of the keg was not even fastened, but an old corn sack was thrown over it and the head put on the top of that. Frank Lovejoy, swore that Dr. Salter had paid him fifty cents to take it outside of the city and 'dispose of it' and 'dispose of it' 'make it all right' with him, if he would say nothing about it. Instead of its being put where it could not be offensive, it was placed in an old rifle pit not two hundred yards from the street railroad track leading to Ponce DeLeon, and not even buried.

Should Dr. Salter determine to carry out his expressed purpose of purchasing a lot wherein to bury his 'debris' the citizens of Atlanta would be saved the annoyance incident to a similar occurrence of inhuman conduct.

Did not 'seek a sensation,' did not know anything of the matter until officially notified, and then I did what I conscientiously believed to be my duty.

F. A. HILBURN, CORNER.

THE PARKS AND WATER.

Communications of Many Interested Citizens.

EDITOR'S CONSTITUTION: Your columns the morning of the 21st announce the proceedings of the city council upon the purchase of a park and the offer of certain parcels of the city of 120 acres of land more or less to be applied to that purpose for the price of $10,000.

Less than two weeks since our city was so poor serious thoughts were taken to levy a special tax to supply the necessary water and the needed repairs upon our streets. It was urged then by able gentlemen that our treasury was too low now to supply these necessities, and could not do so without the named special tax.

What a change has come upon our city! How suddenly wealthy it has gotten! 'On what must do this great city' 'feel that she 'has grown so' fat? How has she become so rich and in so short a time!

Only this morning, and as every day, I read in your paper the report of General Macaulay upon the practical necessity of improving our water facilities, and the great danger to the entire city of leaving them as they are. The answer then was and as it is now is—we are unable to raise the means to improve.

Can the city then afford, at this time, with needs for revenue on all sides to make such a luxury? Has it $10,000 to spend in such a luxury?

Al! but say this, 'This is an esthetic necessity.' 'We must have it.' 'The city needs some resort, some place of beauty.' 'It is so refining.' Just as some unwise man who has laid the foundation and frame-work of his house might say, 'I'm obliged to have a flower-garden. It has a refining influence upon my children. It is so esthetic and eye and is such an esthetic necessity.' Thus he leaves the frame-work of his house and sets about arranging this lovely garden. Before many days the rains come. He and his children have no shelter but the open frame-work of the unfinished house, and now while the rain falls he and they enjoy their lovely 'esthetic necessity,' while 'its refining influence' pours in.

I ask, then, can the city afford to spend money in this way before she is able? Of course by this offer gentlemen will lose nothing. The land may have cost them money, but the enhancement of property which they retain will more than double what they apparently donate. It is only an investment with the city which they expect to record with a ten-fold increase, besides enhancing their real estate and securing a valuable value. It will pay them well to sell the 120 or 110 acres for $10,000, but how about the city? Is it not so poor now that it cannot afford to pay for such a luxury?

But this is not all. After expending the $10,000 for the purchase of the land, and the money will it take to make a park? If all the taxes arising from the increase of property in that section were applied to making the park, it would require more. There is not a more rugged, more barren, more uninviting tract of land in the city than the tract now offered to enriching. It would require an immense amount. The Central park company of New York, it is said, expended for the one purpose of getting their park into shape, $1,000,000. And the Central park company of New York, it is said, expended for the one purpose of getting their park into shape, $1,000,000. And the Central park company of New York, it is said, expended for the one purpose of getting their park into shape, $1,000,000.

This brings us to another point. If located that far out, how many of our citizens could reach it? Street cars would be the cheapest way of access. How many could pay the fare there and back to see the park many times a week? Then could the city afford to maintain these limited means could not. The former can have access to parks at any time by their charming drives in the country, but if located as proposed, those of limited circumstances would never have the means to reach the time. Besides, a good portion of the land is so far as to be outside of city limits and free of taxation. Improvement to property there would be a good deal of increasing revenue, while that portion of the park would all the same receive its part of the expenditures.

Let the city take this additional expense, let her increase the cost for revenue, and it will be but a step towards the necessity for special taxation, and but the signal of poor people, who have by their hard earned labor accumulated a little money to sell, for one to be so by the new burdens of increased taxation.

Go on! Increase taxation, and you will but smother the demand for property and real estate investments in our city.

I am for a park when we are able, and if in an accessible place, otherwise it will fall of the purpose for which it was intended. If we are forced to buy, then it seems to me that the proposition of Colonel L. P. Grant is far more liberal, and the land more accessible. Very respectfully,

E. W. MARTIN.

Atlanta, Ga., March 22, 1882.

THE WHOLE CITY INTERESTED.

EDITOR'S CONSTITUTION: In the location of the park the whole city is vitally interested in getting a site that will prove in after years to be the best pleasure ground for the babies and their mothers who will most need it. There should be plenty of space and as great diversity in shape of surface of the ground as possible. In many respects the plot of ground offered to the city by Colonel L. P. Grant is superior to that so strenuously put forward by the City street railroad and its stockholders. These gentlemen are confessedly in earnest and the reason probably is they see ten dollars for them for every one they 'sacrifice' for the city. The car company does not claim, I believe, more than 120 acres, while the Grant place has upwards of 200 acres. The car company's land fronts on the distance on the Air-Line railroad and will be traversed by the car company's own horse cars. These are two serious objections to the use of this land for a park. The danger to the children and the injury to the sick people from noise. No mother could safely permit her children in such a park unless the railroad was walled out and the car company's track walled in, and to say nothing of the expense of such a wall, it would certainly detract very much from the convenience and appearance of the park to have a double wall running through it near the center. If the

STELSON, JEWELER,

RELIABLE GOODS AND BOTTOM PRICES,

53 WHITEHALL STREET.

1650 oct-30—dim top 7 1/2 in x 1 1/2 in

CLOTHING.

FINE CLOTHING

FURNISHING GOODS.

ENTIRE STOCK

NEW AND FRESH.

LATEST STYLES

BOYS' & CHILDREN'S

CLOTHING

A SPECIALTY.

JAMES A. ANDERSON & CO.

41 Whitehall Street.

Goods sent out of the city on approval. Return Express paid if not suited.

THE RED OAK PRECEDENT

Followed by the United States Judges in the Habeas Corpus Case.

Yesterday Judge Boreman handed down their decision in the Bolton-Freeland habeas corpus case, ordering that the defendants in the Hicks killing case shall be tried in the United States Court at Thomas P. Westmoreland was appointed special attorney to represent the government in the prosecution before the United States commissioner and to assist the solicitor general in the prosecution of the case.

The preliminary trial will take place before a nited States court, and if the evidence is sufficient to justify it, the defendants will be admitted to bail. The Judge's decision reads as follows:

After an examination of all the authorities cited and supported by the law, and reasoning to follow the decision of Judge Woods in the Red Oak cases, reported in 3d federal register, 117. The learned attorney general who has favored the constitutional argument, admits the constitutionality of the section 643 of the United States revised statutes in question, but makes his whole contention upon the ground that the attempt to remove the case from the jurisdiction of the United States court is a violation of the constitution.

The decision of Judge Woods referred to is directly in point for it was rendered in a case identical in all its features with the one now before the court. It was given by a decision rendered by a judge of such high standing it is to be considered that Justice Woods is now the circuit justice of this court, and to dissent from his conclusions in such a matter is to render the practice of the court in a very important class of cases unsettled and uncertain. But we take it that the decision in question is right and supported by the law, and in season of the case, counsel advised, and it seems indisputable that on filling an affidavit and issuing a warrant by a committing magistrate in the state of Georgia a prosecution is commenced. It is not necessary to conceive of a prosecution commenced without its having been commenced in a court. Then we have in this case the compliance with the law, and the removal of the case to a decision rendered by a judge of such high standing it is to be considered that Justice Woods is now the circuit justice of this court, and to dissent from his conclusions in such a matter is to render the practice of the court in a very important class of cases unsettled and uncertain. But we take it that the decision in question is right and supported by the law, and in season of the case, counsel advised, and it seems indisputable that on filling an affidavit and issuing a warrant by a committing magistrate in the state of Georgia a prosecution is commenced. It is not necessary to conceive of a prosecution commenced without its having been commenced in a court. Then we have in this case the compliance with the law, and the removal of the case to a decision rendered by a judge of such high standing it is to be considered that Justice Woods is now the circuit justice of this court, and to dissent from his conclusions in such a matter is to render the practice of the court in a very important class of cases unsettled and uncertain. But we take it that the decision in question is right and supported by the law, and in season of the case, counsel advised, and it seems indisputable that on filling an affidavit and issuing a warrant by a committing magistrate in the state of Georgia a prosecution is commenced. It is not necessary to conceive of a prosecution commenced without its having been commenced in a court. Then we have in this case the compliance with the law, and the removal of the case to a decision rendered by a judge of such high standing it is to be considered that Justice Woods is now the circuit justice of this court, and to dissent from his conclusions in such a matter is to render the practice of the court in a very important class of cases unsettled and uncertain. But we take it that the decision in question is right and supported by the law, and in season of the case, counsel advised, and it seems indisputable that on filling an affidavit and issuing a warrant by a committing magistrate in the state of Georgia a prosecution is commenced. It is not necessary to conceive of a prosecution commenced without its having been commenced in a court. Then we have in this case the compliance with the law, and the removal of the case to a decision rendered by a judge of such high standing it is to be considered that Justice Woods is now the circuit justice of this court, and to dissent from his conclusions in such a matter is to render the practice of the court in a very important class of cases unsettled and uncertain. But we take it that the decision in question is right and supported by the law, and in season of the case, counsel advised, and it seems indisputable that on filling an affidavit and issuing a warrant by a committing magistrate in the state of Georgia a prosecution is commenced. It is not necessary to conceive of a prosecution commenced without its having been commenced in a court. Then we have in this case the compliance with the law, and the removal of the case to a decision rendered by a judge of such high standing it is to be considered that Justice Woods is now the circuit justice of this court, and to dissent from his conclusions in such a matter is to render the practice of the court in a very important class of cases unsettled and uncertain. But we take it that the decision in question is right and supported by the law, and in season of the case, counsel advised, and it seems indisputable that on filling an affidavit and issuing a warrant by a committing magistrate in the state of Georgia a prosecution is commenced. It is not necessary to conceive of a prosecution commenced without its having been commenced in a court. Then we have in this case the compliance with the law, and the removal of the case to a decision rendered by a judge of such high standing it is to be considered that Justice Woods is now the circuit justice of this court, and to dissent from his conclusions in such a matter is to render the practice of the court in a very important class of cases unsettled and uncertain. But we take it that the decision in question is right and supported by the law, and in season of the case, counsel advised, and it seems indisputable that on filling an affidavit and issuing a warrant by a committing magistrate in the state of Georgia a prosecution is commenced. It is not necessary to conceive of a prosecution commenced without its having been commenced in a court. Then we have in this case the compliance with the law, and the removal of the case to a decision rendered by a judge of such high standing it is to be considered that Justice Woods is now the circuit justice of this court, and to dissent from his conclusions in such a matter is to render the practice of the court in a very important class of cases unsettled and uncertain. But we take it that the decision in question is right and supported by the law, and in season of the case, counsel advised, and it seems indisputable that on filling an affidavit and issuing a warrant by a committing magistrate in the state of Georgia a prosecution is commenced. It is not necessary to conceive of a prosecution commenced without its having been commenced in a court. Then we have in this case the compliance with the law, and the removal of the case to a decision rendered by a judge of such high standing it is to be considered that Justice Woods is now the circuit justice of this court, and to dissent from his conclusions in such a matter is to render the practice of the court in a very important class of cases unsettled and uncertain. But we take it that the decision in question is right and supported by the law, and in season of the case, counsel advised, and it seems indisputable that on filling an affidavit and issuing a warrant by a committing magistrate in the state of Georgia a prosecution is commenced. It is not necessary to conceive of a prosecution commenced without its having been commenced in a court. Then we have in this case the compliance with the law, and the removal of the case to a decision rendered by a judge of such high standing it is to be considered that Justice Woods is now the circuit justice of this court, and to dissent from his conclusions in such a matter is to render the practice of the court in a very important class of cases unsettled and uncertain. But we take it that the decision in question is right and supported by the law, and in season of the case, counsel advised, and it seems indisputable that on filling an affidavit and issuing a warrant by a committing magistrate in the state of Georgia a prosecution is commenced. It is not necessary to conceive of a prosecution commenced without its having been commenced in a court. Then we have in this case the compliance with the law, and the removal of the case to a decision rendered by a judge of such high standing it is to be considered that Justice Woods is now the circuit justice of this court, and to dissent from his conclusions in such a matter is to render the practice of the court in a very important class of cases unsettled and uncertain. But we take it that the decision in question is right and supported by the law, and in season of the case, counsel advised, and it seems indisputable that on filling an affidavit and issuing a warrant by a committing magistrate in the state of Georgia a prosecution is commenced. It is not necessary to conceive of a prosecution commenced without its having been commenced in a court. Then we have in this case the compliance with the law, and the removal of the case to a decision rendered by a judge of such high standing it is to be considered that Justice Woods is now the circuit justice of this court, and to dissent from his conclusions in such a matter is to render the practice of the court in a very important class of cases unsettled and uncertain. But we take it that the decision in question is right and supported by the law, and in season of the case, counsel advised, and it seems indisputable that on filling an affidavit and issuing a warrant by a committing magistrate in the state of Georgia a prosecution is commenced. It is not necessary to conceive of a prosecution commenced without its having been commenced in a court. Then we have in this case the compliance with the law, and the removal of the case to a decision rendered by a judge of such high standing it is to be considered that Justice Woods is now the circuit justice of this court, and to dissent from his conclusions in such a matter is to render the practice of the court in a very important class of cases unsettled and uncertain. But we take it that the decision in question is right and supported by the law, and in season of the case, counsel advised, and it seems indisputable that on filling an affidavit and issuing a warrant by a committing magistrate in the state of Georgia a prosecution is commenced. It is not necessary to conceive of a prosecution commenced without its having been commenced in a court. Then we have in this case the compliance with the law, and the removal of the case to a decision rendered by a judge of such high standing it is to be considered that Justice Woods is now the circuit justice of this court, and to dissent from his conclusions in such a matter is to render the practice of the court in a very important class of cases unsettled and uncertain. But we take it that the decision in question is right and supported by the law, and in season of the case, counsel advised, and it seems indisputable that on filling an affidavit and issuing a warrant by a committing magistrate in the state of Georgia a prosecution is commenced. It is not necessary to conceive of a prosecution commenced without its having been commenced in a court. Then we have in this case the compliance with the law, and the removal of the case to a decision rendered by a judge of such high standing it is to be considered that Justice Woods is now the circuit justice of this court, and to dissent from his conclusions in such a matter is to render the practice of the court in a very important class of cases unsettled and uncertain. But we take it that the decision in question is right and supported by the law, and in season of the case, counsel advised, and it seems indisputable that on filling an affidavit and issuing a warrant by a committing magistrate in the state of Georgia a prosecution is commenced. It is not necessary to conceive of a prosecution commenced without its having been commenced in a court. Then we have in this case the compliance with the law, and the removal of the case to a decision rendered by a judge of such high standing it is to be considered that Justice Woods is now the circuit justice of this court, and to dissent from his conclusions in such a matter is to render the practice of the court in a very important class of cases unsettled and uncertain. But we take it that the decision in question is right and supported by the law, and in season of the case, counsel advised, and it seems indisputable that on filling an affidavit and issuing a warrant by a committing magistrate in the state of Georgia a prosecution is commenced. It is not necessary to conceive of a prosecution commenced without its having been commenced in a court. Then we have in this case the compliance with the law, and the removal of the case to a decision rendered by a judge of such high standing it is to be considered that Justice Woods is now the circuit justice of this court, and to dissent from his conclusions in such a matter is to render the practice of the court in a very important class of cases unsettled and uncertain. But we take it that the decision in question is right and supported by the law, and in season of the case, counsel advised, and it seems indisputable that on filling an affidavit and issuing a warrant by a committing magistrate in the state of Georgia a prosecution is commenced. It is not necessary to conceive of a prosecution commenced without its having been commenced in a court. Then we have in this case the compliance with the law, and the removal of the case to a decision rendered by a judge of such high standing it is to be considered that Justice Woods is now the circuit justice of this court, and to dissent from his conclusions in such a matter is to render the practice of the court in a very important class of cases unsettled and uncertain. But we take it that the decision in question is right and supported by the law, and in season of the case, counsel advised, and it seems indisputable that on filling an affidavit and issuing a warrant by a committing magistrate in the state of Georgia a prosecution is commenced. It is not necessary to conceive of a prosecution commenced without its having been commenced in a court. Then we have in this case the compliance with the law, and the removal of the case to a decision rendered by a judge of such high standing it is to be considered that Justice Woods is now the circuit justice of this court, and to dissent from his conclusions in such a matter is to render the practice of the court in a very important class of cases unsettled and uncertain. But we take it that the decision in question is right and supported by the law, and in season of the case, counsel advised, and it seems indisputable that on filling an affidavit and issuing a warrant by a committing magistrate in the state of Georgia a prosecution is commenced. It is not necessary to conceive of a prosecution commenced without its having been commenced in a court. Then we have in this case the compliance with the law, and the removal of the case to a decision rendered by a judge of such high standing it is to be considered that Justice Woods is now the circuit justice of this court, and to dissent from his conclusions in such a matter is to render the practice of the court in a very important class of cases unsettled and uncertain. But we take it that the decision in question is right and supported by the law, and in season of the case, counsel advised, and it seems indisputable that on filling an affidavit and issuing a warrant by a committing magistrate in the state of Georgia a prosecution is commenced. It is not necessary to conceive of a prosecution commenced without its having been commenced in a court. Then we have in this case the compliance with the law, and the removal of the case to a decision rendered by a judge of such high standing it is to be considered that Justice Woods is now the circuit justice of this court, and to dissent from his conclusions in such a matter is to render the practice of the court in a very important class of cases unsettled and uncertain. But we take it that the decision in question is right and supported by the law, and in season of the case, counsel advised, and it seems indisputable that on filling an affidavit and issuing a warrant by a committing magistrate in the state of Georgia a prosecution is commenced. It is not necessary to conceive of a prosecution commenced without its having been commenced in a court. Then we have in this case the compliance with the law, and the removal of the case to a decision rendered by a judge of such high standing it is to be considered that Justice Woods is now the circuit justice of this court, and to dissent from his conclusions in such a matter is to render the practice of the court in a very important class of cases unsettled and uncertain. But we take it that the decision in question is right and supported by the law, and in season of the case, counsel advised, and it seems indisputable that on filling an affidavit and issuing a warrant by a committing magistrate in the state of Georgia a prosecution is commenced. It is not necessary to conceive of a prosecution commenced without its having been commenced in a court. Then we have in this case the compliance with the law, and the removal of the case to a decision rendered by a judge of such high standing it is to be considered that Justice Woods is now the circuit justice of this court, and to dissent from his conclusions in such a matter is to render the practice of the court in a very important class of cases unsettled and uncertain. But we take it that the decision in question is right and supported by the law, and in season of the case, counsel advised, and it seems indisputable that on filling an affidavit and issuing a warrant by a committing magistrate in the state of Georgia a prosecution is commenced. It is not necessary to conceive of a prosecution commenced without its having been commenced in a court. Then we have in this case the compliance with the law, and the removal of the case to a decision rendered by a judge of such high standing it is to be considered that Justice Woods is now the circuit justice of this court, and to dissent from his conclusions in such a matter is to render the practice of the court in a very important class of cases unsettled and uncertain. But we take it that the decision in question is right and supported by the law, and in season of the case, counsel advised, and it seems indisputable that on filling an affidavit and issuing a warrant by a committing magistrate in the state of Georgia a prosecution is commenced. It is not necessary to conceive of a prosecution commenced without its having been commenced in a court. Then we have in this case the compliance with the law, and the removal of the case to a decision rendered by a judge of such high standing it is to be considered that Justice Woods is now the circuit justice of this court, and to dissent from his conclusions in such a matter is to render the practice of the court in a very important class of cases unsettled and uncertain. But we take it that the decision in question is right and supported by the law, and in season of the case, counsel advised, and it seems indisputable that on filling an affidavit and issuing a warrant by a committing magistrate in the state of Georgia a prosecution is commenced. It is not necessary to conceive of a prosecution commenced without its having been commenced in a court. Then we have in this case the compliance with the law, and the removal of the case to a decision rendered by a judge of such high standing it is to be considered that Justice Woods is now the circuit justice of this court, and to dissent from his conclusions in such a matter is to render the practice of the court in a very important class of cases unsettled and uncertain. But we take it that the decision in question is right and supported by the law, and in season of the case, counsel advised, and it seems indisputable that on filling an affidavit and issuing a warrant by a committing magistrate in the state of Georgia a prosecution is commenced. It is not necessary to conceive of a prosecution commenced without its having been commenced in a court. Then we have in this case the compliance with the law, and the removal of the case to a decision rendered by a judge of such high standing it is to be considered that Justice Woods is now the circuit justice of this court, and to dissent from his conclusions in such a matter is to render the practice of the court in a very important class of cases unsettled and uncertain. But we take it that the decision in question is right and supported by the law, and in season of the case, counsel advised, and it seems indisputable that on filling an affidavit and issuing a warrant by a committing magistrate in the state of Georgia a prosecution is commenced. It is not necessary to conceive of a prosecution commenced without its having been commenced in a court. Then we have in this case the compliance with the law, and the removal of the case to a decision rendered by a judge of such high standing it is to be considered that Justice Woods is now the circuit justice of this court, and to dissent from his conclusions in such a matter is to render the practice of the court in a very important class of cases unsettled and uncertain. But we take it that the decision in question is right and supported by the law, and in season of the case, counsel advised, and it seems indisputable that on filling an affidavit and issuing a warrant by a committing magistrate in the state of Georgia a prosecution is commenced. It is not necessary to conceive of a prosecution commenced without its having been commenced in a court. Then we have in this case the compliance with the law, and the removal of the case to a decision rendered by a judge of such high standing it is to be considered that Justice Woods is now the circuit justice of this court, and to dissent from his conclusions in such a matter is to render the practice of the court in a very important class of cases unsettled and uncertain. But we take it that the decision in question is right and supported by the law, and in season of the case, counsel advised, and it seems indisputable that on filling an affidavit and issuing a warrant by a committing magistrate in the state of Georgia a prosecution is commenced. It is not necessary to conceive of a prosecution commenced without its having been commenced in a court. Then we have in this case the compliance with the law, and the removal of the case to a decision rendered by a judge of such high standing it is to be considered that Justice Woods is now the circuit justice of this court, and to dissent from his conclusions in such a matter is to render the practice of the court in a very important class of cases unsettled and uncertain. But we take it that the decision in question is right and supported by the law, and in season of the case, counsel advised, and it seems indisputable that on filling an affidavit and issuing a warrant by a committing magistrate in the state of Georgia a prosecution is commenced. It is not necessary to conceive of a prosecution commenced without its having been commenced in a court. Then we have in this case the compliance with the law, and the removal of the case to a decision rendered by a judge of such high standing it is to be considered that Justice Woods is now the circuit justice of this court, and to dissent from his conclusions in such a matter is to render the practice of the court in a very important class of cases unsettled and uncertain. But we take it that the decision in question is right and supported by the law, and in season of the case, counsel advised, and it seems indisputable that on filling an affidavit and issuing a warrant by a committing magistrate in the state of Georgia a prosecution is commenced. It is not necessary to conceive of a prosecution commenced without its having been commenced in a court. Then we have in this case the compliance with the law, and the removal of the case to a decision rendered by a judge of such high standing it is to be considered that Justice Woods is now the circuit justice of this court, and to dissent from his conclusions in such a matter is to render the practice of the court in a very important class of cases unsettled and uncertain. But we take it that the decision in question is right and supported by the law, and in season of the case, counsel advised, and it seems indisputable that on filling an affidavit and issuing a warrant by a committing magistrate in the state of Georgia a prosecution is commenced. It is not necessary to conceive of a prosecution commenced without its having been commenced in a court. Then we have in this case the compliance with the law, and the removal of the case to a decision rendered by a judge of such high standing it is to be considered that Justice Woods is now the circuit justice of this court, and to dissent from his conclusions in such a matter is to render the practice of the court in a very important class of cases unsettled and uncertain. But we take it that the decision in question is right and supported by the law, and in season of the case, counsel advised, and it seems indisputable that on filling an affidavit and issuing a warrant by a committing magistrate in the state of Georgia a prosecution is commenced. It is not necessary to conceive of a prosecution commenced without its having been commenced in a court. Then we have in this case the compliance with the law, and the removal of the case to a decision rendered by a judge of such high standing it is to be considered that Justice Woods is now the circuit justice of this court, and to dissent from his conclusions in such a matter is to render the practice of the court in a very important class of cases unsettled and uncertain. But we take it that the decision in question is right and supported by the law, and in season of the case, counsel advised, and it seems indisputable that on filling an affidavit and issuing a warrant by a committing magistrate in the state of Georgia a prosecution is commenced. It is not necessary to conceive of a prosecution commenced without its having been commenced in a court. Then we have in this case the compliance with the law, and the removal of the case to a decision rendered by a judge of such high standing it is to be considered that Justice Woods is now the circuit justice of this court, and to dissent from his conclusions in such a matter is to render the practice of the court in a very important class of cases unsettled and uncertain. But we take it that the decision in question is right and supported by the law, and in season of the case, counsel advised, and it seems indisputable that on filling an affidavit and issuing a warrant by a committing magistrate in the state of Georgia a prosecution is commenced. It is not necessary to conceive of a prosecution commenced without its having been commenced in a court. Then we have in this case the compliance with the law, and the removal of the case to a decision rendered by a judge of such high standing it is to be considered that Justice Woods is now the circuit justice of this court, and to dissent from his conclusions in such a matter is to render the practice of the court in a very important class of cases unsettled and uncertain. But we take it that the decision in question is right and supported by the law, and in season of the case, counsel advised, and it seems indisputable that on filling an affidavit and issuing a warrant by a committing magistrate in the state of Georgia a prosecution is commenced. It is not necessary to conceive of a prosecution commenced without its having been commenced in a court. Then we have in this case the compliance with the law, and the removal of the case to a decision rendered by a judge of such high standing it is to be considered that Justice Woods is now the circuit justice of this court, and to dissent from his conclusions in such a matter is to render the practice of the court in a very important class of cases unsettled and uncertain. But we take it that the decision in question is right and supported by the law, and in season of the case, counsel advised, and it seems indisputable that on filling an affidavit and issuing a warrant by a committing magistrate in the state of Georgia a prosecution is commenced.

Crockery, Glassware, Lamps, Show Cases, Cutlery, Seth Thomas Clocks, Fly Fans, Fruit Jars, Filters, to trade at manufacturers prices by McBRIDE & Co. Fullest and cheapest stock ever offered.

JUST RECEIVED.

Tailor-made (Round Robin) $1.00
Capturing a Locomotive—Hittenden 1.25
In the Distance—Lathrop 1.25
Chancellorville and Gentryburg—Doubleday 1.25
Hopes and Fears for Art—Morris 1.25
John Quincy Adams—Morse 1.25
John P. Stetson—Copley—Amory 1.25
Memories of Old Friends—Box 1.25
James Russell Lowell—Underwood 1.50
Dingy Lagoon at Kensington 1.00

For sale by
HOLMAN, COFFIN & CO.,
Booksellers, Art and Commercial Stationers,
26 Marietta street, Atlanta, Ga.

SILVER PLATED WARE.

In order to make room for our spring stock we are CLOSING OUT
our present stock regardless of cost. We are offering great bargains.

J. P. STEVENS & CO.,
JEWELERS.

COTTON AND WEATHER.

Oran, middling uplands closed in Liverpool yesterday, at 6 1/2; in New York, at 12 1/2; in Atlanta, at 11 1/2.

Local Weather Report.
Atlanta, Ga., March 22, 1882.

TIME.	TEMPERATURE.	WIND.	WEATHER.
6:51 a. m.	30.24	W. Brisk	Clear.
11:51 a. m.	30.30	W. High	Clear.
3:51 p. m.	30.29	W. High	Clear.
8:51 p. m.	30.41	W. High	Clear.
Mean daily bar.	30.36	Maximum ther.	54.0
Mean daily ther.	45.5	Minimum ther.	41.0
Mean daily humid.	54.0	Total rainfall.	.00

Reported Signal Corps, U. S. A.

I HAVE JUST OPENED A LARGE STOCK OF FINE
WATCHES, DIAMONDS
and new designs in Jewelry. Call and see them.

A. F. PICKERT

NO. 5 WHITEHALL STREET.
My stock of solid silver and plated ware is the largest ever shown. No trouble to get suited. Do not forget the place.

A. F. PICKERT,
5 Whitehall street.

MEETINGS.

Royal Arcanum
Meets to-night, 7 1/2. A full attendance requested to come out. By-laws may be changed so as to the members for non-attendance, and others for prompt attendance. Come out and cast your vote.
G. S. Prior, Sec'y.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union meets every Thursday at 2 1/2, at the residence of the W. M. C. A., 49 1/2 Whitehall street. A full attendance is expected to-day, that committee may be formed for important business. Citizens and strangers are welcome at every meeting.
Miss M. H. Stokes, Secretary.

If you cannot buy Brewer's Lung Restorer to your city, send us your order to Lamar, Rankin & Lamar, Macon or Atlanta, Ga., and we will forward it to your address. Price $1.00.

Walter Taylor says: "I have a large sale for your Brewer's Lung Restorer and when I sell one bottle for the purchaser invariably buys the second bottle and speaks highly of the medicine."
Sold dim-top local news.

Dressed and matched, and rough lumber shingles and laths, 96 Mitchell street.
mch2 dim-top local news. W. J. WILLINGHAM.

Notice to Coal Dealers.
Sealed proposals will be received at the office of Atlanta water works, until the 23rd of March, for supplying the Atlanta water works with two thousand tons bituminous coal, run of mines. The coal to be delivered at the pumping department four and a quarter miles from the city, and paid for according to the weights of the engine in charge.
Delivery to begin the morning of the 10th of April, and continue at the rate of not less than ten tons per day. All to be delivered by December 25th, 1882.
Payments will be made in three equal installments, three, six and nine months from the commencement of coal delivery.
The commissioners reserve the right to reject any or all bids, and require a bond and security for the performance of the contract.
By order of the board of water commissioners,
WM. G. RICHARDS, Superintendent.

If you have Consumption, or think you have, send us your order at once for a bottle of Brewer's Lung Restorer, and be cured. Lamar, Rankin & Lamar.

Removal.
We have moved our store from No. 7 Decatur street to No. 11 Decatur street, two doors below, in rooms formerly occupied by Messrs. Brook Bros., and invite the attention of the trade to our large and well-selected stock of tobacco, cigars and snuff.
M. HARRALSON, BROS. & CO.
mar18 1w2d eol 8p

Notice this and see if we are not right. A neighbor buys a bottle of Brewer's Lung Restorer and in less than two weeks all his neighbors will have a bottle.

ALL THE COLONELS

Buy their Candles of Phelps, 70 Whitehall street.
mch23 dit-let col 8thp

CITY ITEMS.

W. G. Browne, dentist, 33 1/2 Whitehall street.
The Chinese question is yet unsettled, but many a case of Neuralgia and Headache has been settled by the use of Neuralgine. If you are a sufferer try it. It will relieve you. If you are a sufferer try it.
mar19-diy sun tue thur

Magnolia Hams.
All parties interested in good hams would do well to read the advertisement of McFerran, Shallcross & Co. in this issue.

A. E. SHULH
Will be found at his old place, Mr. Rich & Bro's, where he will be pleased to see his friends.

COMPLETE STOCK NOW IN!
CHAMBERLIN, BOYNTON & CO.

NOVETIES IN SILK DEPARTMENT! NOVETIES IN GRENADINES! NOVETIES IN FRENCH NOVETIES BLACK GOODS—Entirely New Styles. New Style Gingham, Cotton Sateens, French Foulard, Linen Lawns, Organdies, etc. NEW STYLE WHITE GOODS, Elegant Table Linen. NOVETIES IN LACES—Black, Cream and White. HOSIERY! Ladies', Gents' and Children's Hosiery in the South. LADIES' NECKWEAR Superb Stock. New Styles. !!!CARPET DEPARTMENT!!! SHOES Fresh new stock and latest styles. SHOES CHAMBERLIN, BOYNTON & CO.

AMUSEMENTS.

St. Elmo's Show—The Coming Colonel—The Tourist's Arrival.
St. Elmo had a good sized audience at the DeLuxe opera house last night to witness another of his "spiritualistic scenes." It seemed as if the very air of the opera house appeared to be inhabited by "familiar spirits that peeped," and the scenes were all highly enjoyable, most skillfully produced, and left the audience in the dark as to how Mr. St. Elmo really accomplished what he does. His performances are entertaining and worth seeing.

THE COLONEL.
Will be produced by Erie Bailey's comedy company with the original cast, costumes, scenery, and unique appointments, at DeLuxe's opera house to-night. As played by the above company, it has been a success all over the country. The Savannah News says of it: "The bright dialogue, crisp sayings and effective satire keeps an audience thoroughly amused and entertained, and that it is one of the brightest and most enjoyable plays that has been put upon the stage." The scenery of the Colonel company which appears to-night, is said to be very fine. It is from the London theaters, and is painted expressly for this company. After its production in Charleston, the News and Courier says: "Its dialogue bristles with wit and satire, and its situations are simply too utterly indescribably funny for anything. The Colonel is a delightful play, cleverly acted and handsomely set and mounted."
The Smith & Mistay's comedy and musical company will appear in the Tourist at DeLuxe's opera house Friday and Saturday evenings and Saturday afternoon in matinee. Mr. Mistay calls it a "three act, nonsensical, play." The play is an exhibition of traveling life, showing a company en route for anywhere in a Pullman palace car amusing themselves (by day in one act, by night in another), with novel specialties in acting, music and dancing. Each member of the company has much to do in his own line, and does it well. The ladies are bright and clever. The "Tourists" have made the pleasant impression in every town and city visited by them.

AS TO CIGARETTES.

What a Dealer Has to Say on the Subject.
"What tobacco house in the world is the largest?" asked a Correspondent reporter of a tobacco dealer yesterday.
"If you mean which has the most money and turns out the most goods, I cannot say; but if you mean which is the biggest in everything that goes to make up a legitimate and honorable business house, I can mention the name in three words."
"What would you say?"
"Duke's Sons."
"Why do you say so?"
"Simply because, with dealers they are right side by side with the most popular business men of this country, and that is because they are just the very best men you ever dealt with, and whenever you give them an order you know just what you may expect. I can give an order for Duke of Durham cigarettes to-day and two years from now I could duplicate it and the two sets of goods would be identical. You know it is a great failing with tobacco manufacturers, that when they have made a reputation on a particular brand they allow the grade of tobacco to go down and sell on the reputation. Duke don't do that. Duke of Durham cigarettes are the same now, henceforth and forever, and I expect have a larger sale than any other cigarette made. Do you know that these cigarettes are sold all over Europe and in Asia, Africa, Australia and South America?"
"I didn't know that they smoked cigarettes over there."
"They do when they can get such cigarettes as Duke's."
"Then Duke is popular everywhere?"
"Yes, at home and abroad."
The Constitution can endorse the popularity of this well known tobacco house. It is indeed a well known fact that all smokers are loyal and true to Duke's cigarettes. They are the same thing always, ever equal to the best and never surpassed. The establishment is one of the most extensive in the country and stands deservedly high in every way.

LOCAL BRIEVITIES.

A series of meetings are being held at the First Baptist church at 7:30 p. m., every day, and will continue during the week the 23rd of March. Trinity Church—Special services every day at 9 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Attendance, sympathies and prayers of all requested for God's blessing upon these efforts for good.
Revival services going on at St. Paul's Methodist church, East Hunter street, at 7:30 o'clock every night and day to supply the rapidly increasing demand, which comes from all over the globe.
mch23 dit

WE ARE NOW RECEIVING OUR SPRING STOCK

—OF—
MEN'S, BOYS' AND CHILDREN'S CLOTHING

IN THE NEWEST STYLES AND BEST GOODS.
We invite the attention of all buyers of clothing, and especially of those in search of fine styles, to our new stock. We are sure our ability to give perfect satisfaction, both as to quality and price.
When you have a leisure moment drop in, examine our stock, and try on some of our clothing, and see how cleanly our goods are made up, how beautifully they fit.
Special attention of parents are invited to our Boys' and Children's clothing. The same attention has been paid to the make-up and fit as to the Men's.
Come and see us.

A. O. M. GAY & CO.,
37 PEACHTREE STREET,
ATLANTA, GEORGIA.

Important to School Teachers.
P. H. Snook is Southern Agent for the largest School Furniture Manufacturing in the West. Correspondence solicited. Prices low.
mar11-dit

JUST RECEIVED AND OPENED

OUR FULL STOCK OF

SPRING CLOTHING,

In the most Elegant Styles for Men's and Boys Wear,
AND
The most Complete Line of Piece Goods in

SUITINGS, COATINGS & TROUSERINGS

Ever Shown, at HIRSCH BROS.

42 AND 44 WHITEHALL STREET, ATLANTA.

M. HARRALSON, P. H. HARRALSON, H. L. HARRALSON, HENRY P. SCALLES.

M. HARRALSON, BROS. & CO.

—WHOLESALE DEALERS IN—CIGARS, TOBACCO AND SNUFF.

—AGENTS FOR—
Messrs. G. B. Miller & Co.'s Celebrated Maccaboy & Scotch Snuffs.
Lucy Hinton and Stultz's Tobaccos.

NO. 11 DECATUR STREET.

MAGNOLIA HAMS ARE WINTER CURED.

The finest in the world.
For seventeen years tested in Perfect in Cut, Cure, & Flavor.
Every ham guaranteed. Ask your Grocer for Magnolias.
McFERRAN, SHALLCROSS & CO., LOUISVILLE, KY.

mar16 ditw thur sp

W. H. BROTHERTON'S DRESS GOODS

Department is very attractive. 2500 yards all-Wool Black Bunting 15c. This is the biggest bargain in Black Bunting ever offered in the State. Don't fail to see it. Just received in early a beautiful line side band Rubans 25c. These are beautiful and very desirable goods. When in the store ask to see them. Black and White, Blue and Black, Brown and Black Striped Summer Silks 50c. Colored Silks in all shades 50c. Black Silk 50c. Beautiful quality Black Satin 50c. Colored Satins in all colors $1. Black all-Wool Cashmere 40c. English Cashmeres, in assorted colors, 12 1/2 cents.

SPRING DRESS GOODS

No samples or goods sent by mail unless stamps accompany order sufficient to pay postage.
W. H. BROTHERTON

W. H. BROTHERTON'S

At the Kimball from Georgia.
J. L. Bass, Griffin; M. V. McKibbin, Jackson; W. Noble, Rome; D. Bukkoff, L. N. Trammell, F. T. Reynolds, W. M. Lewis, Dalton; C. E. Riley, Columbus; G. F. Ponder, Fair Play; M. L. Duke, Jackson; Miss Conyers, Covington.

The attention of shoemakers, harness-makers and tanners is called to the advertisement of the Atlanta Hide and Leather company, No. 10 South Forsyth street, opposite capitol. There is no better place at which to purchase these articles.

W. H. BROTHERTON'S

Elegant Millinery Department now glittering with all the new styles of Spring Millinery. Ladies will please call and examine this splendid display of beautiful goods. Also, sole agent in and for Atlanta for the sale of Mme. Demorest's Reliable Patterns, at
W. H. BROTHERTON'S

Important to School Teachers.
P. H. Snook is Southern Agent for the largest School Furniture Manufacturing in the West. Correspondence solicited. Prices low.
mar11-dit

SPRING!

SPRING HAS COME AT LAST

JOHN KEELY,

"THE LEADER OF LOW PRICES" IS READY FOR IT.

He is ready for the Heavy Patronage which this lovely weather guarantees. His stock is completely REFRESHED! He is now showing

SPRING GOODS ONLY

New Dress Goods for the Spring!
New Silk for the Spring!
New Printed Lawns, both Linen and Cotton, for the Spring!
New and Lovely Printed Per-ales (half price) for the Spring!
New style Gingham for the Spring!

60,000 YARDS NEW SPRING CALICOES 5c PER YARD

New Ladies' and Gents' Underwear, GAUZE, FOR THE SPRING.
New Ladies', Gents' and Misses' HOSIERY FOR THE SPRING!
Five Thousand Dollars Worth NEW SPRING HOSIERY—Choice Styles!

NO PALACE! NO MINT! NO BOMBAST!

But a truly magnificent stock of goods. All NEW AND FRESH! Selected with an experience second to none. Bought for "SPOT CASH" with all the discount taken off and placed before the public at the smallest possible advance in price above cost.

LADIES' UNDERWEAR

IN SUCH VARIETY AND BEAUTY AS THIS DEPARTMENT HAS NEVER BEFORE PRESENTED IN ATLANTA. This truly choice stock embraces every garment used by the Ladies, which come under the head of "UNDERWEAR." Also, Corset Covers, Dressing Scaques, Child's short Dresses, Child's Long Dresses, Child's Skirts—both long and short, etc.

THE VARIETY IN THIS STOCK IS LIMITLESS ALMOST!
THE CHARACTER OF THE WORK IS THE VERY FINEST!
THE "LOCK STITCH" MACHINE HAS BEEN USED IN THEIR MANUFACTURE.

The Prices are such as will cause COMPETITION to Pale before them. The stock of Corsets is PERFECT

LACES, ETC.

1,200 pieces New Laces, embracing the very choicest novelties in Torchon and Cluny, Edelweiss, Snow Drop, Duches, D'Alencon, Brussels, Point Carreaux, Brabant, Valenciennes, Chantilly, Guipure, Point Gaze, Oriental, Valenciennes, English Threads, Spanish Laces in Black, White and Cream, Maltese, Hottentot, and a hundred others, with insertions to correspond. Also, all the new Dotted Veilings, Mother Hubbard Collars by the thousand. Also, $1000 in fine variety. Lawn and Lace Ties.

NEW AND FRESH,

EMBROIDERIES, including a handsome line of narrow Fine Edgings and Insertions at

JOHN KEELY'S.

THE

NO SECOND-HAND GOODS.

We have over $30,000 worth of
NEW AND ELEGANT

FURNITURE
and MATTRESSES,
Which we are offering at

ASTONISHING LOW PRICES.
CALL BEFORE PURCHASING. WE ARE PREPARED TO AND WILL GIVE BARGAINS.

We are the only house in this city that do not sell on the installment plan, consequently we have no second hands or taken back goods. Why take the risk of having second-hand Furniture pained off on you for new, not knowing where they have been or who have used them, when you can purchase of us better goods for less money? We mean just what we say. Seeing is believing. Remember, big bargains for the next two weeks.

STOCKER & CASTLEBERRY,
85 Whitehall and 92 Broad Streets.
407 mch19-dit sun tue thur

QUICK AND SATISFACTORY.

Cuthbert, Ga., August 19th, 1881.

Dear Sir—I take pleasure in certifying to the efficacy of the packages of Sanoline purchased of you. I used them on sore backs, and collar galls, and can safely say that nothing I ever used proved as quick and satisfactory a cure. Yours,
C. L. TUMLIN, Livestockman.

RECEIVER'S NOTICE.

Master Charles Metcalfe is the only authorized street collector for the late firm of Haskell & Shulhafer, and all bills not paid to him can be settled with Mr. John H. Wright, at my store, No. 9 North Pryor street. They or myself are only authorized to receipt for accounts due the firm of Haskell & Shulhafer.
M. FRANKLIN,
Receiver.

mar21-dit sp

W. H. BROTHERTON'S

SHOE Department is complete in every line, from the cheapest to the very best brands made. Ladies Cloth Shoes for 75c. Ladies sewed all-leather Shoes, nice quality, for $1. Ladies Fox Gaiters, beautiful shape, for $1. Gents and Ladies Carpet Slippers, in all sizes, 50c. Don't fail to see this Slipper—it is a bargain. All other goods in this department correspondingly cheap at
W. H. BROTHERTON'S

mar11-dit

DAVID H. DOUGHERTY
Is now in New York purchasing for his Spring Trade one of the largest and handsomest
"BANKRUPT STOCK."
Ever brought South. ALL FRESH AND NEW FROM FIRST HANDS.

VOLUME

THE

STRICTLY

The Contest of

Washington

North, of his place. A large man

sent a pet

jected by

recently

for a sec

armed, bu

demanded

complie

For North

unusual

fideliy to the union

the serv

and his o

Grant man

coalition.

confirmation

lean

SENATOR

Senator H

gone to P

tending him

there was had best

see how the heal

only treat

healing of

glands. T

heved to

Mr. Black

physician's

covey.

Georgia

in the hou

bill, and u

get one o

was one of

think, first